College of Science and Technology

Goals for 2012-2013

Distributed August 23, 2012

These goals are based on the roles and responsibilities of deans as described in section 4.1.3.1 on page 62 of the Radford University Teaching and Research Faculty Handbook.

- to lead the faculty and staff of the college in developing and delivering educational opportunities of the highest quality possible for students, consistent with the mission of the College,
    - In consultation with the faculty and staff of the CSAT, develop strategies to enhance student retention and support the transition of students into professional careers and post-baccalaureate academic opportunities,
    - Support the development of online and hybrid instructional delivery methods of CSAT courses, and
    - Support the development of online and hybrid instructional delivery methods of CSAT courses
- to lead the College in procuring and managing fiscal, human, and physical resources necessary to accomplish these goals,
    - Pursue new relationships with corporate partners and continue to pursue gifts to the CSAT, and
    - Support the efforts of faculty members to achieve a goal of 26 external grant submissions and 13 external grant awards
- to represent the college, its goals and needs to other external as well as internal constituencies, and
    - Continue to communicate with all constituents of the CSAT through the CSAT newsletter and alumni newsletter and by meeting with departments and faculty members
- to promote the overall excellence and welfare of the University
    - Support positive morale among faculty and staff across the CSAT by listening to faculty concerns and soliciting faculty input in decisions affecting the CSAT, and
    - Support efforts to engage alumni in the work of the CSAT