Students who desire to complement their foreign language skills with a cultural focus may obtain an Intercultural Studies Minor. Students seeking to minor in Intercultural Studies must complete 21 semester hours which must include Cultural Anthropology (SOCY 121) and at least one course in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.

Core: (required for all fields of concentration):

SOCY 121 Cultural Anthropology, one foreign language course — 3 hours minimum, plus an additional foreign language course — 3 hours minimum, if the student did not have 3 years of the above language in high school.

Fields of Concentration:

- Classics:
  - Foreign Language course must be in Latin
  - History of Ancient Greece and Rome; Classical Mythology; Ancient Philosophy; and two electives for a total of 21 hours

- Latin America:
  - Foreign Language course must be in Spanish
  - Latin American History; Geography of Latin America; Government and Politics of Latin America and two electives for a total of 21 hours

- Western Europe:
  - Foreign Language courses can be in French, German, or Spanish
  - History of Europe; Geography of Europe; Government or Politics and Western Europe for a total of 21 hours

A maximum of 9 hours or 3 courses may be chosen from the same department. No more than a total of 6 semester hours can be also used to meet either the Core Curriculum requirements or the requirements for a major or another minor program. Three hours must be in 300/400 level courses.

The program of all Intercultural Studies Minors must be approved by the Chair of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures. Elective courses must also relate to the field of concentration.