E. Assessment Measures

1. Class participation
2. Key NCATE Assessment: “Develop and present lesson plans incorporating the critical attributes of effective teaching and assessment.”
3. Class presentations to assess understanding of course content
4. Collect, transcribe and analyze a language sample from a deaf/hard of hearing student
5. Exams
6. Individual and group projects assessing a variety of course standards
7. Observation reports of itinerant shadowing
8. Complete literature review of evidenced based practices for deaf and hard of hearing students and develop a plan for implementation within your placement

F. Other Course Information

Graduate Credit: This course is dually listed with EDSP 428. To receive graduate credit, graduate students must complete a credible literature review of evidenced based practices used with deaf and hard of hearing students and develop a plan for implementation in their educational placement.
