A. Catalog Entry
EDSP 750: Internship in Early Childhood Special Education
Abbreviation: (INTERN IN EARLY CHILD SPEC EDU)
Three to six credit hours of field experience (9)
Prerequisite: Completion of EDSP 360 or 361; and EDSP 436, 437, 438, 439 and 451 or their equivalents.

Students will participate in a one semester, full-time placement in which they will work in an early childhood special education setting under the direction of a qualified teacher.
Full teaching responsibility is assumed for at least seven weeks. Internship grades are recorded as A-F.

B. Detailed Description of Content of Course Represents the early childhood special education culminating experience for graduates of the Interdisciplinary Studies Early Childhood Education/Early Childhood Special Education (IDEC) program seeking the MS in Education –Early Childhood Education and teacher licensure. It is a full-time placement in which the student works with children ages two through five with developmental delays and disabilities who are enrolled in public school services. The student will be under the direction of a cooperating teacher who is licensed in early childhood special education (ECSE) and has appropriate ECSE teaching experience. A member of the Radford University graduate faculty in early childhood special education will provide overall supervision of the internship experience.

The internship will begin with observation in the classroom and culminate with full responsibility for the cooperating teacher's daily schedule for a minimum of seven weeks. Seminars are regularly scheduled and focus on the integration of research-based practices and classroom applications. Students conduct an action research project as part of this internship.

The following topics are covered in the course:
I. Use technology and multimedia effectively to assist instruction.
II. Incorporate knowledge and techniques from multiple disciplines and integrate goals from IEPs into daily learning activities and routines.
III. Assess children’s behavior using formal and informal assessment strategies and utilize data to enhance instructional planning for children.
IV. Apply knowledge of diversity of socio-cultural and political contexts and work effectively with children from varied social, cultural, and linguistic backgrounds and diverse family systems.
V. Establish and maintaining positive, collaborative relationships with colleagues, other professionals and families, and work effectively as a member of a professional team.
VI. Reflect upon practices, articulate a philosophy and rationale for decisions, demonstrate graduate-level writing and research skills, and continually engage in self assessment and professional improvement and development.
C. Detailed Description of Conduct of Course
Students are placed in a full-time clinical internship in a public school with preschool children with disabilities. This experience begins with observations and limited participation, and culminates in assumption of full teaching responsibility for a minimum of seven weeks.

Teacher candidates participate in the full range of duties of public school teachers for the duration of the semester and abide by school site calendars and policies. Teacher candidates take part in all professional and community activities expected of Cooperating Professionals and demonstrate commitment to the professions’ codes of ethical conduct.

Internship Seminars are regularly scheduled to enhance professional development of teacher candidates. Seminar discussion topics will emphasize professionalism, ethics and legal issues and action research.
