INVITED SPEAKER

- The Honorable Brian Moran
  Secretary, Virginia Office of Public Safety and Homeland Security

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

- The Honorable John P. Fishwick Jr.
  United States Attorney for the Western District of Virginia

- The Honorable Craig “Jake” Jacobsen
  Assistant United States Attorney for the Western District of Virginia
  Chief of the National Security Division of the US Attorney’s Office in Roanoke will speak on the “Processing and Interrogation of Enemy POWs in 2003 during Operation Iraqi Freedom.”

- Mubin Shaikh
  Former CSIS and RCMP source who penetrated the Toronto 18 terrorist group that plotted to storm Parliament Hill in 2005 and detonate truck bombs in downtown Toronto. Mubin’s testimony in various legal hearings over the years was a key component in the conviction of eleven militant jihadists. Mr. Shaikh became Muslim extremist in 1995, following meetings in Afghanistan with the Taliban. He reconsidered his views after the 9/11 attacks and in 2004 he began working with the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS) targeting Muslim extremist activities in Toronto.

- Dr. Rachel Santos and Dr. Roberto Santos
  Radford University Professors of Criminal Justice will speak on “Stratified Policing: Taking What Works for Crime Reduction.” Presentation will focus on how police organizations implement evidence-based crime reduction strategies, crime analysis products, the problem-solving process, and an internal accountability structure.

- Special Agent Mike Larrazolo
  From the FBI Richmond Field Office, will speak on “Current and Developing Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) Trends.”

- Dan Mulvenna
  Retired RCMP counterintelligence officer, Director of Global Security for Amoco Corporation, and International Security and Risk Management consultant to Fortune 500 corporations in the energy, pharmaceutical and financial sectors, will speak on “Terrorist Attacks on High Profile Individuals and Counter Measures.”

- F.L. ‘Rusty’ Capps
  Former FBI Special Agent and a specialist on International and Domestic Terrorism cases will speak on “The Path to Extremism: Myths and Realities of the Radicalization Process of a Terrorist.”

- Tom Mauriello
  Former NSA security executive and forensic sciences instructor at the University of Maryland, will be doing a 3-hour presentation on “Effective Oral Communications,” a 1 hour presentation and a demonstration on the “Use of Unmanned Aircraft (Drones) for First Responder Operations”, and he will host a one hour, national panel discussion to highlight the capabilities of distance learning on the subject of the 1971 D.B. Cooper Hijacking Case.

Those wishing to attend the conference and companies and agencies wishing to exhibit at the Industry Trade Fair should contact Dr. Stephen Owen, Chairman, Department of Criminal Justice at ssowen@RADFORD.EDU or 540-831-6786 or Rusty Capps, Conference Facilitator at rcapps42@gmail.com or 540-460-3663.