

2015 Distinguished Scholarship Award

College of Humanities and Behavioral Sciences

Call for Nominations

Each year, one Radford University faculty member receives the College of Humanities and Behavioral Sciences Distinguished Scholarship Award. The award recognizes excellence in scholarship, the recipient is chosen by a committee of faculty members representing each department/school in the college, and the distinguished faculty member is honored by the college dean at a meeting of all college/school faculty members.

To be eligible, a faculty member must be nominated. Any student or faculty member can make a nomination. To nominate a deserving faculty member, fill out the nomination form below. The nomination form must be filled out completely and must be submitted electronically to Dr. Tod Burke, Associate Dean, College of Humanities and Behavioral Sciences (tburke@radford.edu) by Friday, 20 February 2015.

To be eligible, a faculty member cannot have received this award before. Previous recipients include Dr. Niels Christensen, Dr. Sharon Roger Hepburn, Dr. Hilary Lips, Dr. Renee Dickinson, Dr. Guy Axtell, and Dr. Tod Burke.

To be eligible, a faculty member's home department must be in the College of Humanities and Behavioral Sciences. The College of Humanities and Behavioral Sciences is comprised of the following schools, departments, programs, and minors:

- Communication
- Criminal Justice
- English
- Foreign Languages and Literatures
