ARMY ROTC AT A GLANCE

What is an Officer?
The Army’s senior managers, problem solvers, key influences and planners who lead Enlisted Soldiers in all situations.

Advantages
• A fast track management opportunity
• Development of a unique brand of leadership
• Strengthen skills enabling you to be decisive and tenacious.

Opportunities for Students in ROTC
• Develop skills in leadership, time management and planning.
• A chance to challenge themselves mentally and physically and succeed.
• The opportunity to serve their country.
• Four, three and two year full-cost tuition and fees scholarships or room and board plus $1200 annually book allowance and a monthly stipend of $300-$500 per month.

Full-Cost Tuition and Fees Scholarship General Eligibility
• U.S. Citizen
• Between 17-26 years old
• High School Graduate or equivalent
• Minimum cumulative 2.5 GPA
• Minimum 1030 SAT or 22 ACT
• Pass a physical fitness test
• Pass a medical exam

Basic Course
Freshman - Sophomore College level courses:
• No service obligation
• Instructions that will benefit you in school, civilian occupation, and/or military (i.e. Leadership, Time Management, and Organizational Tasks).
• Opportunities to participate in local and national events, field trips and adventure training.

Advanced Course
Junior - Senior College Level Courses:
• Committed to joining the Army as a Commissioned Officer upon graduation.
• Attend a fully paid month long leadership course in the summer (usually the summer before your senior year).
• Paid a stipend of $450/Juniors, $500/Seniors
• Plan and conduct training for Freshmen & Sophomores (usually conducted by Juniors)

For more information please contact us at:
ROTC
Radford University
Box 6947
Radford, VA 24142
arotc@radford.edu
540-831-5288