PAINTED SONGS & STORIES:
CONTEMPORARY GOND ART FROM INDIA

Radford University Art Museum at the Covington Center
Sax., 7 – Oct. 25
Weekdays 10 a.m. – 5 p.m.
Weekends Noon – 4 p.m.
An opening reception, including a talk and short performance, will be held Sat., 5 at 5 p.m.

Brightly colorful depictions of tribal mythology delight the eye during this exhibition of contemporary Gond art from central India, curated by John H. Bowles, author of Painted Songs & Stories: The Hybrid Flowerings of Contemporary Parахi Gond Art, published in 2003 by INTACH (Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage). The Gonds are a tribal people who first came to popular international attention through Rudyard Kipling’s The Jungle Book, which describes them as “...the oldest race in India — the sovereign owners of the land...” Gond artist Vasant Ramen Singh Shyam and Sani Shyam will attend the exhibition opening in the center of the gallery’s floor. Sani Shyam will create a ritual dance (a traditional design applied by the Gonds to the walls and floors of their homes).
