College of Visual & Performing Arts Ambassadors
Program Information

Description of Position

The College of Visual and Performing Arts (CVPA) Ambassadors are an elite group of students who assist with event planning and act as student liaisons for the College and Community of Artists living-learning community (CoA). They also represent the College and CoA at events for prospective and continuing students.

Qualifications

All applicants must:
- Be undergraduate, full-time students
- Be pursuing a major in Art, Dance, Design, Music, or Theatre
- Have a minimum GPA of 2.5 overall and in-major
- Be recommended by a member of the CVPA faculty or staff or a current CVPA Ambassador

Responsibilities of Position

- Participate in recruitment events and marketing campaigns to promote both the CVPA and the CoA
- Assist in planning events and fostering a sense of community for the CoA
- Collaborate in organizing and encouraging other students from the College and CoA to participate in informal academic and social programs
- Aid in fostering campus and community support for both the College and CoA
- Establish and maintain a strong working relationship with the Faculty Advisor
- Regularly attend CVPA Ambassador meetings/training (generally once every other week)

Expectations

CVPA Ambassadors are enthusiastic and dedicated students who are willing to act as role models for current and prospective students. They are expected to serve as leaders of high character and to be visible and vibrant members of the CVPA as well as the Radford community as a whole.

To apply:

All CVPA Ambassador candidates must be recommended by a member of the CVPA faculty or staff or a current CVPA Ambassador. If you are interested in becoming a CVPA Ambassador you must find an individual to recommend you. All recommended students will receive an application and additional information about the application process via email.
