UNIVERSITY RELATIONS REPORT

Mr. Joe Carpenter, Vice President for University Relations and Chief Communications Officer, provided a recap of the 2015-2016 marketing and advertising campaign, which provided statistics on (i) the number of impressions that were delivered in support of undergraduate admissions; (ii) the amount of web traffic to the undergraduate admissions sections of the University’s website; and (iii) the amount of web traffic to the MBA section pages of the University’s website, as a result of the MBA marketing campaign. Mr. Carpenter also noted the activities of both the Media Relations team and the Creative Services team within University Relations. Ms. Katherine “Kitty” McCarthy, Vice President for Enrollment Management, provided a brief bio of her career noting that she has been with Radford University approximately two weeks. She then introduced Mr. James Pennix, Dean of Admissions, who reported on Fall 2016 enrollment. Mr. Pennix reported that Fall 2016 enrollment included 1,751 new freshman and 719 transfer students for a total undergraduate student enrollment of 9,401, which is a decrease of approximately four percent. He also noted that thirty-eight percent of the student body are first generation college students, and twenty-nine percent of the student body are students of color.

Ms. McCarthy provided an outline of how the Fall 2017 recruitment plan will be implemented, and noted that the plan will be highly tactical, data informed, collaborative, goal oriented, and include competitive practices. She indicated that specific initiatives that are included in the plan and are currently underway include: territory management, a partnership with Royall and Company, and scholarships. She concluded that she will present the finalized plan, including analytics, at the November Committee meeting. Ms. McCarthy reminded the Committee that the 2017 plan will be our baseline year for using various analytics.

The Committee discussed how changes in the timing of the financial aid application, the use of scholarships, and recruitment methods for first-generation college students can impact student enrollment.

Mr. Marcus thanked Ms. McCarthy for her report.

ADJOURNMENT

With no further business to come before the Committee, Mr. Marcus, Chair, adjourned the meeting at 10:33 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Michele N. Schumacher

Advertising’s Impact by Market

- The majority of advertising spend during Sept-Feb was allocated to four key market DMAs (Designated Market Areas): Washington DC (NOVA), Roanoke, Richmond and Norfolk
- In general, in-state applications through February were consistent with the proportion of ad spend per market, with a particular uptick in Radford’s home market of Roanoke

All data pulled from Sept 1, 2015 – Mar 1, 2016
Digital advertising impressions targeted the same four major Virginia markets, with the majority of impressions focused on the heavily populated Washington DC (NOVA) market.

Traffic patterns on the Admissions section of the Radford website mirrored the delivery of digital ad impressions by market.

Total applications are highly correlated with the pattern of traffic to the Admission site.

• Goal: Introduce the COBE brand and drive interest and enrollment in Radford undergraduate business education

• Audience: Prospective students and their parents; current Radford students

• Strategy: Position COBE as providing a hands-on education that develops the competencies that will support any career path students choose. Make business education relevant to the Millennial generation

• Tactics:
  – Target a paid social media campaign to prospective students and parents in high potential markets;
  – Promote COBE enrollment events for highly selective students;
  – Develop collateral to tell the COBE story
FY15/16 Advertising Insights

- Undergraduate enrollment year has three “phases”; advertising needs to be in synch
  - Discovery/Early Application phase: Sept-Oct
  - Conversion/Regular Application phase: Nov-Feb
  - Yield & Early Discovery phase: Mar-May
- Transfer prospects typically research all year (both seasons), but application phase only ramps up in January and maintains momentum through May
- Majority of online applicants are using Google to search for Radford. They go straight to the homepage
  - Vital to continue to include and expand key information on homepage to drive students to learn more and apply
- Digital marketing landing page will benefit from adding visuals, attractive buttons, and incentivized call-to-actions.
Upcoming FY16/17 Campaign Approach
Strategic Approach for FY2016-17

• Launch with awareness and interest building branding tactics Sept-Oct during discovery phase for high school seniors and their influencers
  – Hyper-targeted digital media
  – Radio/Streaming tactics to promote Open Houses and campus visits
  – Align with relevant print content
  – Introduce paid social media to encourage engagement and promote Open House dates

• Elevate ad presence during key application/conversion phase of Nov-March
  – Launch new TV spot and leverage spot on digital channels to expand reach
  – Strategically targeted out of home opportunities to extend brand presence
  – Communicate deadline dates on digital executions (display/social) to generate sense of urgency

• Continue momentum through the Spring during yield phase and younger high school students’ discovery phase
  – Consider native advertising channels that seek to educate and inform the next generation of applicants
  – Concentrate paid search on Transfer prospects who are more likely to apply in the Spring
Fall 16/Spring 17 Media Approach

- Out of Home
  - Continue to leverage OOH in areas where Radford will benefit from additional visibility
  - Continue to employ proven transit opportunities to expand the marketing footprint
  - Consider digital units that will allow for rotation of multiple creatives and time-sensitive copy

- Print/Magazine
  - Focus on college guides and program-specific publications with contextual relevance
  - Diminish use of newspapers/magazines, which tend to skew older in readership and historically contribute more to resource constraints

- Radio
  - Continue to use terrestrial radio in Roanoke market for branding and Open House communication
  - Use streaming radio across all state markets to efficiently target prospects and parents

- Television
  - Run new TV spot in high potential markets
  - Flight media to run after political season (Nov) to avoid rate hikes
  - Run online video of new spot to extend reach and frequency; include call to action graphic
Fall 16/Spring 17 Media Approach

- Digital Advertising
  - Continue to target display banners to Radford’s most relevant audience
  - Consider allocating a larger pool of budget toward mobile targeting, as 50% of website searches are now done on a mobile device first
  - Employ unique sizes and executions to command attention
  - Use Cost per Visit as a primary KPI for digital media and use Radford’s FY16 CPV as a benchmark
  - Employ innovative digital and paid social media tactics to engage students, parents and influencers “where they live,” and multiply exposure through social media “sharing”
  - Coordinate “Search Engine Marketing” timing during periods with highest opportunity for conversion or return on ad spend (ROAS)
Key Performance Indicators for FY16-17

- Employ GLOBAL Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) that measure the quantity and quality of traffic engaging with the Admissions section of the Radford website as a product of the overall marketing effort

- Utilize DIGITAL KPIs that measure specific campaign metrics and actions that are directly attributable to the digital marketing efforts

Global KPIs
- Undergrad Admissions Section Traffic
- “Apply” Page Traffic
- Application Link Event Actions

Digital KPIs
- Digital Media Impressions
- Marketing Landing Page Visits
- Marketing Landing Page Inquiry Actions

Visit Rate & Cost Per Visit used as quality performance benchmarks
