Notes:

- VCCS transfers with A. A., A.S., or A.A. & S. degrees will be considered to have fulfilled all Core Curriculum requirements as per the 1993 State Policy on Transfer.
- New freshmen who earned a score of 700 on the writing portion of the SAT will receive credit for ENGL 101, which waives CORE 101. A high score on the critical reading portion of the SAT will no longer result in course credit.
- Students can receive Radford University credit for ENGL 101 & 102 as well as CORE 101 & 102. In this situation, ENGL 101 & 102 will count towards the 120 semester hours required to graduate.
- The CORE Equivalencies for VCCS will remain as stated for a minimum of three years.
