I. The meeting was called to order at 3:30 p.m.
II. The minutes for March 6, 2014, were approved as read.
III. Dr. Kopf gave his report.
   a. Dr. Kopf is awaiting further word on the faculty compensation issue.

IV. Dr. Minner gave his report.
   a. Personnel.
      • The last Skype interview has been held for dean of the CVPA, and on-campus visits will take place soon.
      • The advertisement for the position of Director of International Education will be disseminated shortly. The search will be both internal and external.
   b. Partnerships/Collaborations.
      • The collaboration with the Jefferson College of Health Sciences and Virginia Tech Carillion School of Medicine has been approved.
      • The Certificate in Bioethics also represents a collaboration with the Jefferson College of Health Sciences and Virginia Tech Carillion School of Medicine.
   c. Admissions/Retention.
      • Admissions are “tracking very, very, very well.” Paid deposits are up 4% from this time last year. Out-of-state applications are up 17%.
      • Students are using NetTutor.
   d. Budget/Compensation
      • The university will be moving forward on the compensation issue.
• There is not yet a final budget on the state level. One provision would earmark several thousand dollars for RU for retention efforts; another would provide funds for what used to be known as the game lab.

e. Accreditation
• The Commission on the Accreditation of Programs in Applied and Clinical Sociology (CAPACS) recently had a positive visit to campus.

f. Miscellaneous/Announcements
• The university is negotiating with a donor to purchase rare photographs of coal extraction, including panoramic shots, as well as the camera used to take the shots.
• The university is purchasing pipes, drums, and attire for our students to use on occasions such as the Highlander Festival.
• A forum on assessment will be held to address the “big picture” of what we do at Radford in the area of assessment.
• A reception celebrating RU authors will be held.

V. Committee Reports.

a. Campus Environment: Dr. Ferrari reported that the committee will be seeking more information about the proposed campus information kiosks. Dr. Ament asked that the committee inquire about disability accessibility. Dr. Ferrari also reported that the faculty morale survey should be available shortly.

b. Curriculum Committee: Dr. Gingrich reported that the Curriculum Committee was introducing two motions: a Motion to Allow Departments to Develop Discipline-Based Alternatives to CORE 201 and CORE 202 and a Motion to Support Creation of Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Bioethics.

c. Faculty Issues: Dr. Barris reported that the FIC had met with four individuals from the Center for Innovative Teaching and Learning to discuss online learning and that the committee would introduce a new motion on the subject at a later date.

d. Governance: Dr. Schoppelrey reported that the committee had three motions under old business: a Motion re Revising the T & R Faculty Handbook to Change Composition of College Curriculum Committees, a Motion Providing for Posting of Faculty Appeals Committee Procedures on Faculty Senate Website, and a Motion Providing for Posting of Faculty Grievance Committee Procedures on Faculty Senate Website. She also reported that the dean evaluations would go out on the upcoming Monday. Staff will not be included in the process at this time because no provision in the T & R Handbook accommodates staff, but the Governance Committee will be reaching out to the AP Senate to discuss this issue.

e. Resource Allocation: Dr. Kasturi reported that the Resource Allocation Committee, which earlier met jointly with the Governance Committee, has reworded the proposed workload policy and was seeking further comment. He also reported that the committee was introducing a Motion re Minimum Salaries and a Motion re Travel Reimbursement.
