I. The meeting was called to order at 3:32 p.m.
II. The minutes for February 5, 2015, were approved.
III. Dr. Kopf introduced the representatives of the RU Futures Group: Drs. Foy and Hazleton, both senators; Vice President for University Relations Joe Carpenter; and Dr. Jacobsen, Associate Dean of Graduate and Professional Studies. He stated that New Business would be introduced but otherwise the usual agenda would not be followed in order to provide people with an opportunity to participate. The meeting was then turned over to Dr. Hazleton.
IV. RU Futures Group presentation

a. Dr. Hazleton pointed out the features of the Futures Group website (http://www.radford.edu/content/futures/home.html/) and asked senators to spread information to people unable to attend one of the forums.
b. Dr. Foy stated that students should also be encouraged to submit ideas.
c. Dr. Hazleton reported that ideas would be rated and pared down to a manageable number and that the resulting list would be brought back to the faculty for feedback. A report would then be made to the provost and the president. Ultimately, a report would be made to the Board of Visitors.
d. Discussion included questions about the timeline, about how challenges and opportunities sometimes seem to cancel each other out, about the future of online courses; and about continuing education as both a revenue-generating opportunity and a service to alumni.
e. Senators suggested that suggestions could be uploaded to the website and that the usual agenda could be returned to. Dr. Hazleton concluded by asking senators to go back to their colleagues and encourage them to visit the site and consider contributing and by stating that faculty had an opportunity to have an impact.

V. Committee Reports

a. Campus Environment: Dr. Newman reported that the committee would be introducing two motions.
b. Curriculum: No report.
c. Faculty Issues: Dr. Barris reported that a meeting will be held with two SGA representatives to discuss the issue of posting midterm grades for all students.
d. Governance: No report.
e. Resource Allocation: Dr. Kasturi reported that the committee has drafted a faculty workload policy statement and will be meeting with the Governance Committee.
