Motion to Revise University Core A: Foundations

Referred by the Curriculum Committee

Faculty Senate Curriculum moves the following revision of University Core A: Foundations.

- Goal 1 (Written Communication): Students will take two courses specified by the Department of English;
- Goal 2 (Oral Communication): Students will take one course specified by the School of Communication;
- Goal 3 (Critical Thinking): Students will take one course--either Core 201 or a discipline-based critical thinking course;
- Goal 4 (Information Literacy): Information literacy will be included in the second course specified by the Department of English under Goal 1 and the critical thinking class specified under Goal 3.

The total number of courses in University Core A: Core Foundations will remain four. All courses taught under University Core A: Core Foundations must assess all learning objectives for the goal or goals in which they are included and must have assessment plans that are approved by CCAC.
