I. Introduction
This document describes the structure and procedures used to develop policies which are within the authority of the University.

Radford University has a strong commitment to collaborative governance among the constituencies of the University community because the results are longer lasting and of higher quality than what one person can accomplish alone. There must be many leaders on a university campus, leaders who are visible, speak often to articulate both issues and values, stand publicly for what is important, and commit themselves to the overall welfare of the University community.

Through a collaborative governance process, individuals and the University can harmonize their goals and set a course for mutual achievement. The willingness to listen to all ideas, to respect competing concerns, to evaluate the merits of many alternatives, and to communicate helps build consensus. The councils/committees which constitute the governance system serve in an advisory capacity and exist for the purposes of advising the University’s president and/or his/her designee in the administrative decision-making process.

A successful collaborative governance process enables the programs and services of the University to improve in an atmosphere of trust, respect, and open decision making among colleagues. It allows the University to address complex issues, to remain open to discovery, to adapt to changing needs.

II. Overview of Structure
The Internal Governance Structure provides a broad framework for governance, with the inclusion of the President, the President's Cabinet, the Student Government Association, the Faculty Senate, the Administrative Senate, and the Staff Senate, as well as necessary committees and/or councils. The chart located on page 6 illustrates the organizational structure of the Internal Governance System:

A. Board of Visitors - As public trustees the members of the Board have the overall responsibility and authority, subject to constitutional and statutory limitations, for the continuing operation and development of the institution as a comprehensive state university and for the evolving policies within which it must function. The By-Laws of the Board of Visitors delegate the authority to implement the internal governance system to the president of the university.

B. The President - For the continuing operation and development of the institution much of the authority of the Board of Visitors is delegated to the President, who serves as agent of the Board and chief executive officer of the University. This includes the authority to approve the development and revision of the Internal Governance System.

C. President's Cabinet - The President, Vice Presidents, and Executive Assistant to the President comprise the President's Cabinet. The function of the Cabinet is to discuss, review, and reach university decisions with respect to all major actions in the operation and development of the University that require action at this level. The President may delegate decision-making authority to the President's Cabinet or to individual members of the President's Cabinet when appropriate. Members of the President’s Cabinet may delegate decision-making authority when appropriate. This delegation of authority is in keeping with the philosophy that decision-making authority should be delegated to the lowest appropriate level.

D. Senates - The following bodies serve as the representative organization for the respective constituent groups at the University:

1. Student Government Association - The purpose of the SGA is to facilitate the representation of graduate and undergraduate student opinion. Every student becomes a member of the association upon matriculation with the University. The SGA Senate serves as the primary legislative body of the SGA and acts as an organ for student expression and participation in campus policy decisions.

2. Faculty Senate - The purpose of the Faculty Senate is to enable the faculty to fulfill its function with respect to academic and educational policies and other affairs of Radford University. The Faculty Senate assures representation of faculty interests and of the faculty view of the common good of the University community, in accordance with recognized principles of university shared governance.

3. Administrative Senate - The purpose of the Administrative Senate is to study, formulate, and recommend to the President’s Cabinet policies and procedures affecting the employment and working conditions of administrative and professional faculty and to serve as the representative body for Administrative and Professional Faculty.

4. Staff Senate - The purpose of the Staff Senate is to serve as the representative body for the classified and (1500 hour) wage employees and to accept and share responsibility with the administration, faculty, and students in all efforts to attain the stated goals of the University.

E. University Committees and Councils: Standing and ad hoc committees and councils may be established as necessary for the purpose of advising the President, the President's Cabinet, and other administrators; considering and making recommendations regarding a variety of university policies and procedures; and/or carrying out those policies and procedures.
III. Procedures and Guidelines for University Committees and Councils

A. Membership - When selecting members to university committees and councils, unless otherwise specified, student appointments are made by the SGA; faculty appointments are made by the Faculty Senate Executive Council; administrative and professional faculty and support staff appointments are made by the Administrative Senate and the Staff Senate, respectively, except for staff identified from a specified division and in that case appointments are made by the appropriate vice president. All appointments to university committees and councils are submitted to the President's office by July 15. Persons who serve by virtue of position may appoint a designee. Designated representatives may serve as voting members. All university committees and councils should convene by October 1 with exception of noted committees that are convened only when business needs to be addressed.

B. Term of Appointment - The term of appointment to university committees and councils is two years staggered (unless otherwise indicated) for all non-student members to ensure continuity. The term of appointment for students is one year. Members may be reappointed. If a substitute is appointed to complete the term of any committee member, the substitute's term shall expire at the end of the original term.

C. Designated Administrators - The President, a member of the President’s Cabinet or his/her designee serves as the designated administrator for each university committee and council. Designated administrators are responsible for facilitating the business of the committees and councils, convening or designating a convener for the first meeting of the committee, serving as a resource for the committee or council, and facilitating the approval of proposals. The designated administrator may choose to attend any of the committee/council meetings for which the administrator is responsible (except when appeals or grievances are being considered that may later be considered by the designated administrator). In most cases the designated administrator is a non-voting member unless otherwise noted in the committee composition description. (See Appendix A, Guidelines for "Designated Administrators or their designees for University Committees and Councils for a detailed list of duties of designated administrators)

D. Officers – Unless otherwise indicated, the chairs of university committees and councils are elected annually by the members of the committee or council by the second meeting of the committee/council. The chair identifies a vice chair and a recording secretary and notifies the Executive Assistant to the President of their selection as chair.

E. Committees/Councils Internal Policies - University Councils and Committees that have or develop internal policies for carrying out the responsibilities of the council/committee will submit those documents and any subsequent revisions to the appropriate designated administrators for review and approval. A copy of these documents is to be filed with the designated administrator or designee

F. Path of Proposals - The sponsor of the proposal is responsible for submitting the proposal to the appropriate University committee/council or senate for discussion and action. If the proposal is approved, the chair of that committee/council/senate will determine if the approval of another committee/council/designated administrator is required or desirable and, if so, will submit the proposal to that authority along with any comments received from senates. The submitter of the proposal will be notified of referral to another committee or council and the final decision. Although authority for the approval of proposals is delegated to the lowest appropriate level, certain proposals may require approval at several levels up to and including the Board of Visitors.

As proposals are being considered, each of the senates and University committees/councils is expected to insure that ample opportunity is provided for the appropriate senate(s) to review and take action if needed on any proposals that are of significance to those members of the University community who are represented by one or more of the four senates or as required in this document. Generally, this obligation can be accomplished as follows:

Committee/council members who are appointed by the respective senates should accept responsibility for identifying those issues that are of potential interest to their constituents and for facilitating communication between their senate and the University committee/council.

All recommendations/proposals that require the approval of another committee, council, senate, designated administrator[s], President’s Cabinet, President, Board of Visitors shall be made in memo form to the appropriate designated administrator and bodies.

Note: These steps must occur in a timely fashion. If no decision has been rendered from the appropriate approval authority within 20 class days, the proposal may be submitted to the next level of authority by the sponsor of the proposal.

Pertinent Form- This form is distributed by the Executive Assistant to the President.

Internal Governance Annual Report and Recommendation/Proposal Form
This form, distributed by February 15 each year, is to be used on an annual basis by every University committee and council. The annual report and any recommendations/proposals for changes to the Internal Governance document are to be included on this form and submitted to the designated administrator by March 15. Following their review, the designated administrator will submit these forms to the Executive Assistant to the President by April 15.

G. Parliamentary Authority - Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised governs all proceedings of the internal governance committees and councils.

H. Attendance – All members are expected to attend meetings of their respective committee/council. The appointing senate/official will be asked to appoint someone who can and will attend regularly.
I. Meetings - Except when personnel matters are being considered, all meetings of the councils or committees, subject only to space limitations, are open to faculty, students, and staff of the University. Observers may request permission of a council or committee to testify or participate in debate. A quorum shall be based on a majority of the voting membership of the committee/council, excluding any membership positions that are vacant after October 1st.

J. Minutes - Each University committee/council will distribute the minutes to the members of the committee/council and the appropriate administrators. Hard copies of the minutes and supporting documents will be filed in the official committee file (maintained by the designated administrator or designee). These documents will be maintained for the current and previous academic year at a minimum.

K. Internal Governance Structure Revisions - Proposed changes to the established internal governance structure and university committees /councils including the establishment of new committees are to be submitted to the University Executive Council through the designated administrator. A proposal to change the function or membership of a committee must come from the committee or be submitted to the committee for comment. In case of varying recommendations see the University Executive Council function on page 13. When developing proposed changes, the originator(s) should consult the appropriate Cabinet Officer. All proposed changes to committees /councils should be submitted by the designated administrator to the University Executive Council by April 15 along with that committee’s or council’s Annual Report.

   The University Executive Council is responsible for the review and approval of proposed changes in the membership composition and function and the coordination of all University committees and councils, except those reporting to the senates. The actions of the University Executive Council are subject to the approval of the President’s Cabinet.

L. Confidential Discussions and Documents – University councils and committees will not withhold any documents or records of discussions (except those protected by federal and state law) from any constituency group. Virginia Code 2.1 – 342.01 section A paragraph 6 allows the working papers and correspondences of the chief executive officer of any public institution to be kept confidential for deliberative and personal uses. In accordance with the principles of the internal governance system, when working papers and correspondences are submitted to university councils and committees they will be treated as public documents.

Guidelines for “Designated Administrators” or Their Designee for University Committees and Councils (unless otherwise stated)

*Designated Administrators will be thoroughly familiar with the IG Document as it applies to their designated areas of responsibility.

1. Convene the first meeting of the committee/council by October 1 after consulting the schedules of the members. If possible, the meeting should be scheduled at a time that is mutually convenient for all members of the committee/council.
   a. By the second meeting, facilitate the election of the chair by members of the committee and the appointment of a vice chair and recording secretary.
   b. Arrange for new committee/council members to be informed about the function and procedures of the committee/council.
   c. Notify the Executive Assistant to the President of the name, university address, phone number, FAX number, and e-mail address of the chairperson by October 15 on a form to be provided by the President’s Office.

2. Serve as a resource for the chairperson and the committee/council (i.e. Communication with all appropriate university groups, preparation of proposals using the appropriate forms and format, routing of proposals, other guidelines and procedures, etc.)

3. Attendance at meetings of the committee/council by the designated administrator is optional. The designated administrator will not attend committee meetings in which appeals or grievances are being considered (i.e. committees in which appeals are being considered that may later be considered by the designated administrator). The designated administrator may participate fully in meetings of the committee/council as a non-voting member (unless otherwise stated).

4. Proposals from the committee/council are to be submitted to the designated administrator along with any comments from the Senates. If the appropriate Senate(s) has not been afforded the opportunity to review and comment on the proposal, the proposal should be returned to the committee/council until those consultations have occurred.

5. (Applicable only to designated administrators who are members of the President’s Cabinet) After reviewing the proposal and any comments, the appropriate member(s) of the President’s Cabinet or the President’s Cabinet may take one of the following actions on the proposal:
   a. Recommend approval of the proposal to other authorities, when appropriate. For example, proposed revisions to the Internal Governance Document are to be forwarded to the University Executive Committee for review and recommendations
   b. Approve the proposal (final).
   c. Disapprove the proposal with explanation provided to the sponsor of the proposal.
   d. Seek further input from the committee/council or return the proposal to the committee/council with the request that it be reconsidered and revisited.
   e. (Applicable only for proposals which are submitted to the President or President’s Cabinet) Before making a decision on the proposal, consult with the University Executive Council about proposals on which there has been disagreement or on which the President or President’s Cabinet desires the advice of the Council.
   f. (Applicable only for proposals which are submitted by Student Affairs Committees to the Vice President for Student Affairs) At the request of the VPSA, the recommending committee, or the SGA, recommendations that are submitted to the VPSA may be referred to the VPSA, to the Student Affairs Executive Council, and/or to the SGA for their review and recommendation. This council also serves as the appeal body for appeals of decisions of Student Affairs committees. This council reviews and recommends revisions to the Internal Governance Structure concerning Student Affairs.

6. After the proposal receives final approval or disapproval:
   a. File an official copy of the proposal with the responsible Vice President, who will, when appropriate, forward the proposal to the Executive Assistant to the President and the Council for the Review of University Policies.

7. Designated Administrator will facilitate the submission of Annual Reports to the Executive Vice President to the President through the appropriate Vice President.

Appendix C – Scholarly Lectures Committee

This committee remains in the Internal Governance Document but does not appear in the IG Committee Document. Below are sections from individuals whose institutional memory bears on this topic.

A few years ago, Scholarly Lectures was eliminated as an IG committee, largely, as I remember, because the funds supporting it were coming out of Student Activities fees, but the committee was controlled by Academic Affairs.

I don’t know how it works now, but during the years before I left, the Club Programming Committee, which accepts requests for and then allocates Student Activities funds, has set aside a large proportion of the funds it has available for scholarly speakers, performers, etc. To have access to these funds, the requester(s) must represent student organizations—thus, students are receiving funds supported by their fees, and using them for academic purposes. I sat on CPC for the five years or so before I retired, along with two teaching faculty, and the process seemed to work well.

I recall that the change was approved by the UEC, but I don’t remember the Faculty Senate’s involvement.

Dr. Steve Lerch (Retired)
Past Vice Provost

I was trying to recollect and then I saw Steve’s response. I think he is pretty accurate. I would guess that the elimination of that committee might have taken place at least 5 years ago…maybe closer to 10.

Dr. Joseph P. Scartelli
Past Interim Provost
