

In determining eligibility for accommodations under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the American's With Disabilities Act (ADA) the student must demonstrate that a qualified professional has established a formal diagnosis of a disability. A qualified professional must not be a relative or a family friend.

The diagnosis alone is not enough to establish eligibility for accommodations under the ADA. There must also be evidence of a “substantial limitation” in one or more major life activities, such as walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, caring for self, performing manual tasks, working or learning. These guidelines are provided to help the evaluating professional document his/her findings in a manner that meets requirements of the ADA and supports the request for accommodations.

The professional conducting the evaluation and making the diagnosis must be qualified to make the diagnosis and to recommend appropriate academic accommodations. Professionals typically qualified to make a diagnoses include;

Clinical Psychologists	Educational Specialists	Speech and Hearing Specialists
Neuro-Psychologists	Learning Disabilities Specialists	Visions Specialists
Psychiatrists	Licensed Professional Counselors
Relevantly Trained MDs	Licensed Clinical Social Workers

The documentation must include the name, title, and professional credentials of the evaluator, licensure number and specialization. All evaluations reports must be typed on letterhead, signed, and dated by the diagnostician.

A prior history of accommodations, without demonstration of current need, does not in and of itself warrant the provision of a like accommodation. If no prior accommodation has been provided, the evaluator must include an explanation about why no accommodations were used in the past, and why accommodations are needed at this time.

It is the student's responsibility to:

- Obtain current and appropriate documentation (the age of acceptable documentation is on Page 2)
- Present a copy of disability documentation from a qualified professional to the Disability Resource Office upon acceptance of admission and decision to attend RU.
- Obtain additional information or testing when requested

It is the Disability Resource Office's responsibility to:

- Review documentation in a timely manner
- Notify student of documentation status
- Provide services/accommodations for students with disabilities

Submit all documentation to:

If a requested accommodation is denied, a written grievance/appeal procedure is in place and may be obtained from the DRO.

For further details regarding documentation guidelines that are accepted as best practice by most postsecondary institutions refer to: www.ets.org/disability/html

Confidentiality: The Disability Resource Office (DRO) adheres to the laws governing confidentiality. Once registered, all documentation and information becomes confidential, and is maintained in a secure location. Documentation of a disability is never part of a student's academic record.

Radford University provides equal access to education without regard to disability.

Current and appropriate documentation for a temporary medical or physical condition must be completed within the previous 7 days.

1. A Clear statement of the diagnosis of the medical or physical condition.
2. A description of the present symptoms/features, including the severity of the condition and expected duration*.
3. An assessment of how the condition comprises the student's functioning in a college setting.
4. Medication and treatment information, including side effects that may impact the student's ability to function in a college setting.
5. Suggestions for reasonable accommodations or services, such as note-taker support, extended time or scribe for exams, etc.

*Note: Students may be required to furnish periodic re-certification of continuing need.

Students should be aware that the Disability Resource Office assists only with academic accommodations. We are not able to assist with needs outside of class such as homework and transportation.
