DEFINITIONS

"Special Disabled Veteran" means (A) a veteran who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Veterans Administration for a disability (i) rated at 30 percent or more, or (ii) rated at 10 or more percent in the case of veteran who has been determined to have a serious employment handicap or (B) a person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

"Veteran of Vietnam-era" means a person who served more than 180 days of active military, naval, or air service, any part of which was during the period February 28, 1961 through May 7, 1975 and who (i) was discharged or released therefrom with other than a dishonorable discharge, or (ii) was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability. No veteran may be considered to be a veteran of the Vietnam era under this paragraph after December 31, 1991.

"Other Eligible Veteran" includes two key veteran groups. First, it includes veterans who served in a "war". Since the last declaration of war issued by Congress initiated World War II, veterans with active duty service between December 7, 1941 and April 28, 1952 are considered veterans of World War II and are included in the Other Eligible Veterans category. The second veterans group in the Other Eligible Veterans category includes those veterans who served in a campaign or on an expedition for which a campaign badge, a service medal, or an expeditionary medal has been awarded. This includes a number of military engagements that are listed on the reverse side of this page.
