

RU Residence Hall Themed Housing Interest Form

New Freshman/Transfer Student

Form required only if you are interested in applying for Priority Placement in one of the listed themed housing communities.

This form is used to apply for Priority Placement into the themed residence halls for the 2009-10 academic year (approximately 70 spaces per building). More specific information about these communities is available in the Residential Life brochure and online at www.radford.edu/res-life. You must completely fill out this form in order to be considered for Priority Placement into one of the themed communities listed below. Spaces are often filled during the Priority Placement process. Selection is competitive and is based on when the University deposit and the Themed Housing Interest Form are received, as well as the statement written below.

STEP ONE:

Please complete the following information:

Name (Last, First, Middle) _____

Gender: _____ Male
_____ Female

E-Mail Address: _____@radford.edu

RU Student ID Number: _____ Declared Major(s) _____

Current Class Standing: _____ New Freshman _____ Transfer

If you have listed a preferred roommate on your Room Reservation Card, please encourage him/her to complete a "Themed Housing Interest Form." If you are approved for Priority Placement, but your roommate is not selected for Priority Placement, would you prefer to: (check one response)

- Keep your status in the Priority Placement process and you will share a room with another student who was selected for the community.
 Keep the roommate you listed and you will live in a different residence hall.

STEP TWO:

Please preference your top two choices of themed communities a "1" or a "2" priority:

Unless indicated otherwise, students selected to live in themed living communities will be placed according to that building's location, even if it does not correspond with the quad preferences on the Room Reservation Card.

____ First Year Experience (New Freshmen only) ____ Upper-class Student Initiative (transfers only) ____ Housing during University Breaks

* These communities have air-conditioning (when available) and require residents to pay an additional fee of $160 per semester.

You may give your consent to pay the $160 air-conditioning room fee per semester by checking the box to the right.

Only students who have agreed to pay the additional room fee may be placed in air-conditioned communities; placement in an air-conditioned room is not guaranteed.

These communities require residents to have declared majors within the designated academic programs.

The Honors Academy is by invitation only, please call (540) 831-6125 for more information.

Yes, I agree to pay the $160 air-conditioned room fee per semester, if I am selected.
This will be billed later.

STEP THREE:

Please use this space to explain why you are interested in living in the themed communities you selected. You may use the back of this form if you would like to provide additional information, if necessary.
