

Changes to General Education Requirements for 2006-2007

Area 5: International and Intercultural Studies

ESHE 262: Introduction to Asian Martial Arts/added	Survey of Asian martial arts concepts and cultural interpretations for self defense. Introduction of international issues, rituals, and values.
--	---

Area 6: Mathematical Sciences

Math 125: Finite Mathematics for Business and Economics/added	Replaces Math 145. Must have completed two hears of high school algebra or equivalent. Cannot receive credit for Math 145 and 125.
Math 126: Business Calculus/added	Replaces Math 121. Pre-requisite is four years of high school mathematics. Math 125 may be recommended as a pre-requisite as necessary. Students cannot receive credit for Math 121or 151 and Math 126.
Math 132: Honors Applications of Mathematics/added	Must be member of Honors Academy to enroll.

Area 7: Physical and Natural Sciences

BIOL 111 and 112 no longer offered
------------------------------------	--

Area 8: Social and Behavioral Sciences

PSYC 230 added	Primarily for students enrolled in the Waldron College of Health and Human Services who are required to take a core lifespan course in social and behavioral sciences.
----------------	--