The Smart Choice

Radford University is renowned for effective teaching and inspiring a commitment to public service. Richmonders who share these values choose wisely when they choose RU.

The Bushes believe their daughter Jennifer, a senior elementary education major, made a wise choice to attend Radford University because of professors who are dedicated to teaching and building strong bonds with students, and the innovative use of technology in the classroom. Carolyn says, “RU has excellent educational opportunities. I love it that my daughter chose to go there.”

Levar’s best memories of RU are related to the varied opportunities the university offers. “People with options are the happiest people in the world. With so many excellent programs and organizations at RU, you can dive in and see what fits best for you.”
