Have you participated in the AASIS Program before? No Yes, as a mentor
 Yes, as an AASIS Scholar

Commitment

The AASIS Program involves a full year (fall and spring semester) of commitment to volunteer activities including the following: being an active part of a team of 8-10 mentors who will make two visits to an area high school, host two scholar visits to RU, correspond monthly with scholars, keep and submit individual AASIS journals (that include all mentor-scholar correspondence and descriptions of presentations and visits), and attend mentor meetings and team planning sessions.

I am committed to meeting these obligations, if accepted to the AASIS Program.

Transportation

Participating schools may be some distance away (up to an hour's drive) from Radford University. Your mentor team will need to provide its own transportation for at least two visits. It is possible that arrangements can be made for those who do not have transportation by carpooling with fellow team members who do.

- I will be able to provide my own transportation.
 I will not be able to provide my own transportation.

References

References from two Radford University professors or instructors are required. Take one reference sheet to each professor. He or she should complete the form and return it to the Appalachian Regional Studies Center, Box 7014, as soon as possible.

What previous experience (such as working as a camp counselor, Sunday School teacher, or volunteering with a teen community program) do you have working with young people?

What is your interest in Appalachia? (If possible, please refer to any background experience including courses in Appalachian Studies, life experiences, and interests in Appalachia.)

What special skills and personal qualities do you have to offer the AASIS Program?
