  - Dean Caldwell asked for a volunteer from CHBS to serve on the Grievance Committee
  - Dean Caldwell indicated some budgetary issues may impact some recruitment funding allocations (above $1000). The allocations will be reviewed and revised if necessary and communicated to programs in which adjustments were made. Allocations will be transferred to designated accounts for program use. All funds need to be encumbered for use by March 1st.
  - Dean Caldwell described the purpose of Supplemental Applications.
    - There have been questions about whether the supplemental application is and applications fee are necessary.
    - Supplemental applications are only required by applicants to programs that use CAS applications – third party application systems – including MOT, COSD, DPT, MSAT, PA. CAS’s do not transfer data for incorporation into Radford’s Banner System; so, a supplemental application is required to create a Learner Record in Banner which creates student accounts for enrollment, billing and all other students services. So, the supplemental application is essential to admitting students and creating student account o Radford charges a $50 application fee for the supplemental applicants just as it does for regular applicants. CAS applications have their own application fees which can approach $200 in some cases, making the overall application cost to these programs much more expensive than non-CAS programs.

o Note added after GAC meeting - Application fees are set by the Central budget office and not the Graduate College. If the supplemental application fee was removed this would lead to a substantial loss in revenue (up to >$40,000). The budget Office would need to determine how removing the application fee would impact budget allocations.

            o Dean Caldwell indicated that a number of proposed directed studies were forwarded indicated that two or more students would work on the same project
            o Dean Caldwell stated he could support proposals in which two students worked on the same topic, but with different aims or goals
            o Dr. Hilden asked how this might impact projects such as in which two student were working together on the same project; this is a new approach in the EdD program.
            o Dr. Caldwell said this was something that the Graduate College had only just recently been made aware of. He was arranging a meeting with STEL Director Bozack and EdD and the program director to discuss this.
            o After that meeting Dean Caldwell would report back to GAC at the following meeting; He suggested tabling the motion until the next meeting - approved

Contact(s):

Email: cgsr@radford.edu

Effective Date:
ASAP

Last Update

I. Who Is Affected By This Policy

This policy is applied to students who have been separated from previously enrolled graduate programs at Radford University for at least two years. A graduate student may request academic forgiveness as described below.

II. Policy

- Forgiveness will apply to All graduate RU grades for semester(s) being requested; all grades will remain on transcript. ALL course grades during semester(s) requested will be excluded from GPA calculations; hours will not count toward graduation requirements. Any academic probations/suspension, academic honesty violations or dismissal will remain on their transcript. Students may request forgiveness for any or all prior semesters preceding the request. If multiple semesters (sessions) are requested for forgiveness, they must be sequential.

- Graduate students may apply for forgiveness one time only. The decision is final.

- The academic forgiveness requests must be approved/granted by the Graduate College Dean before the student is re-admitted or re-enrolled.

- Students are eligible to apply to the same program they were dismissed from or to a different program. All admissions requirements of the program must be met.

- Upon their return, students are restricted to taking no more than 9 credits their first semester or 6 credits in a seven-week ‘fast track session’, unless this restriction conflicts with a program’s requirements.

- Academic forgiveness may not be requested after earning a degree or a certificate.

* Other institutions may or may not recognize the forgiveness policy and may include forgiven grades and recalculate GPAs for their own purposes.
* Students should follow up with the RU Financial Aid Office to determine eligibility following approval of academic forgiveness.

III. Procedures

1. Students must complete a copy of the ‘Academic Forgiveness Request Form’ and include a statement describing: 1) how their situation has improved, 2) what additional support they have, compared to their previous semester(s) for which they seek forgiveness; and 3) how will they ensure their academic success.
2. Academic forgiveness requests will be approved or denied by the Graduate College Dean.
3. Academic forgiveness requests must be approved before the student is re-admitted or re-enrolled.

B. Directed Study – Policy Revision - Changes highlighted in RED

Policy Title:
Directed Study Policy for the Graduate College

Responsible Office(s):
College of Graduate Studies

Responsible Executive(s)/Staff: Dr. Benjamin Caldwell; Dr. Agida Manizade

Contact(s):
Radford University College of Graduate Studies
Email: cgsr@radford.edu

Effective Date: 10/01/2023     Last Update 09/25/2023

I. Policy Statement
The directed study policy is intended for an individual graduate student who wishes to design a graduate level course in consultation with a professor. The professor shall supervise this course.

II. Who Is Affected By This Policy
Any Radford University Degree-Seeking Graduate Student who has completed at least nine graduate semester hours and is on regular status who wishes to participate in a Directed Study.

III. Definitions
Associate Graduate Faculty Status: Full-time or part-time, tenured/tenure-track faculty OR special purpose faculty OR adjunct faculty OR administrative/professional faculty. Qualifications are a doctorate or other recognized terminal degree; or no doctorate or other recognized terminal degree but in either case has demonstrated continuing scholarly/creative activity or professional experience.

IV. Policy
· The Directed Study is intended for an individual student to design a course in consultation with a professor who will supervise the study.

· The professor of record must hold full or Associate Graduate Faculty status. Before registering for a directed study, the student must submit a written proposal for approval by the supervising professor, advisor, department chairperson and the Graduate College.

· It is required that the student has earned at least nine graduate semester hours and be on regular status prior to enrolling in directed study courses.
A directed study cannot be used to replace a required course in a graduate program of study. A directed study cannot be taken on a course that is already offered. Non-degree seeking students may not take a directed study course. The directed study course cannot have a group of students enrolled in a singular course. Meaning each course is for a single student.

The directed study will be graded on an A/F basis. Instructors must specify if whole letter grades (A, B, C, F) or plus/minus grading will be used (A, A-, B+, B, B-, C, F) in addition to the other required information on the Directed Study Proposal.

A single directed study can carry from one to four semester hours of credit. A maximum of six semester hours of credit in directed studies can be used toward graduation in a degree program; program requirements may limit the student to fewer than six hours of directed study.

Students electing to do a thesis as part of their degree requirements may take up to four hours of a directed study as part of the degree program.

V. Procedures
Students must submit a written proposal for approval by the supervising professor, advisor, department chairperson and the Graduate College at least two weeks prior to registration for the course.

Grievance Committee Minutes
Friday September 22, 2023, 1PM

Attendees: Ben Caldwell (presider, non-voting), Judy Jenks, Maneesh Shakkar, Ken Smith
Absent: Jason Browning, Jeff Pittges, Ryan Smith

1. Purpose of Grievance Committee
   a. Grievance Procedures
   b. Timelines

Dean Caldwell gave an overview of the grievance processes and procedures
- Student must first attempt to resolve any disputes through an informal process
- If a resolution is not achieved through an informal process, the student initiates a formal grievance resolution process
- Reviewed deadlines and timelines for steps involved in process; noted there is not set timeline/deadline for initial review of grievance by committee.

Initial Concerns and Suggestions:
- Document is extremely dense and difficult to read and follow
  o Have lawyer review and make comments or suggestions
- Bullets could help in separating important processes and ease reading
- Timeline can vary depending on whether grievance applies to an individual complainant vs. a program or department
- There is no timeline indicated for initial review of grievance by committee to determine if there grounds for a hearing – amend to include time component to complete initial review; should be consistent time with other timed deadlines
- If committee holds a hearing and finds in favor of the student appellant, the grievance could be referred back to the department for resolution. There is potential that the grievance may not be resolved and extend the process unnecessarily or indefinitely.
- Ken Smith suggested the Appeals section of the Discrimination and Harassment Policy used Office of Institutional Equity could be useful for comparison since it utilizes a similar timeline of processes.

2. Update Recent GC activities
   Dean Caldwell discussed the process used for a formal grievance filed in June 2023.
   - Noted during period from July 31- Aug 10, faculty are not under contract – no obligation by faculty to conduct business; grievance extension was agreed to by student and grievance committee to accommodate this time period

3. Charges
   - Review any formal filed grievance, following current procedures
   - Review current processed and procedures document and recommend changes to make process more clear and understandable.

Consider Graduate Grade Appeal Procedures (very similar in process to grievance processes) and consider recommendations for potential revisions to grade appeal procedures document.

4. Select committee chair – no quorum
   Duties
   - Oversee formal filed grievance process if/as needed
   - Coordinate review of grievance procedures and communicate recommendations to GAC for approval
5. Future Meetings, 1PM
   - Oct 27
   - Nov 17
   - Feb 23
   - Mar 22

GAC Bylaws Committee Meeting Minutes
September 8, 2023, 1 PM

Attendees: Ben Caldwell, Robert Trent, Ben Biermeier-Hanson, Dee Pennington
Absent: Kim Baskette, Katie Hilden, Charles Manyara, Jenessa Steele

1. Shared Folder – 2022-2023 committee’s documentation
2. Review current draft bylaws

   Considered representation – attendees felt one representative per program (including separate concentration) was appropriate; certificates would not have representatives
   Suggested changes:
   - Article III, Section 4: Attendance – remove consecutive from number of absences; add “without prior notification”
   - Article VII,
     o Sectio 3. Voting – suggested not including allowance for proxy votes; recommend attendance required to vote
     o Section 4. Who may call meetings – discussed whether general faculty should be allowed to call/request GAC meeting; recommendation of group was for faculty to request Dean/GAC Chair to call special meetings; some attendees not comfortable with faculty calling special meetings
   - Article VIII. Graduate Faculty Criteria
     o Began discussion of full graduate faculty qualifications; recommended striking “at time of hire from statement “Doctorate or other recognized terminal degree at time of hire,”. Some faculty earn doctorates following initial hire.
     o Discussion of Dean Caldwell’s request to include time period for demonstration of professional/scholarly/creative activities to provide evidence of staying current in faculty member’s field; will need additional consideration and discussion

3. Discuss feedback from April 7, 2023 GAC meeting - included in review above
4. Steps moving forward
   - Complete review of Graduate Faculty Qualifications and Graduate Curriculum, Amendments, Ratification
5. Other items for discussion – none
DEI Ad-Hoc Committee Meeting Minutes

09/22/2023     Zoom     1:00 PM- 1:30 PM

Participants: Agida Manizade (Chair); Shuo Yao; Brian Kitts; Holly Cline; Darryl Corey

Purpose of Meeting:
Create a plan for DEI for the College of Graduate Studies

Topics Discussed:

● Introductions/Why are people interested in DEI?
● Graduate college does not have an existing DEI statement.
● Start with the statement, then come up with an action plan, and then change the statement after the action plan.
  ○ Statements should be able to be changed consistently to match the action plan.
  ○ Writing the statement first creates a good framework for an action plan.
● Pull sections from the RISE program (QEP), to cover all bases and be in alignment with the university.

https://www.radford.edu/content/radfordcore/home/news/releases/2022/july/qep-overview.html

● After the statement is created include input from faculty outside of the committee

Decisions and Actions to be Taken:

● Agida will propose an initial draft DEI statement before the next meeting.
● At the next meeting committee will look over the draft and decide what changes need to be made
● From there, the committee will move on to creating the action plan.
