

Application for Inside Out Course

Due to Dr. Bolin (rbolin1@radford.edu) no later than 5 pm on Tuesday, October 31st.

This course is conducted entirely within a secure correctional facility. During the Spring 2018 semester, students must be able to arrive at the facility every Wednesday by 1:00 pm. The course will run until approximately 4 pm at which time students will be released. Keep in mind that it will take approximately 30 minutes to arrive at the facility. Your submission of an application indicates understanding and compliance with these expectations and all rules and procedures within the Department of Corrections facility. Keep in mind that there are only 10 spots available for this course so this is a competitive application process.

Name:

Completed credit hours (as of this day—do not include in progress credit hours):

GPA (Preference will be given to students who have a minimum 3.00 GPA):

Major(s):

Minor(s):

Have you ever taken a criminal justice course?

Describe any previous experiences with correctional facilities.

Describe how this course fits into your overall program of study.

Describe how this experience will benefit you.

List three things that appeal to you about taking a course inside a prison.

Describe your professional goals and aspirations upon graduation.

Describe any reasons that might prevent you from passing a background check.

List all days and times you are available for an interview during the week of final exams. It is important to give as many times as possible so an interview can be scheduled. Interviews are offered on a competitive basis. Not all applicants will be interviewed.

Provide the name and email address for one full time faculty member who can serve as a reference for you.