

Zuleika Gonzalez

Bruised but Not Broken

An Epic Journey of Healing,
Recovery and Triumph

Zuleika Gonzalez is a national speaker, accomplished artist, photographer, and founder of the nonprofit "Voices of Survival." A survivor of domestic abuse and advocate for victims' rights, Gonzalez will be presenting her art and life story to inspire and empower those affected by domestic abuse and educate the public.

Reminder: SPEAKING EVENT
Hurlburt "The Bonnie" Auditorium
Monday, Oct. 20, 5 – 6 p.m.

MEET AND GREET RECEPTION
To Immediately Follow Speaking Event

COBE Multipurpose Room BE 340

Monday, October 20th from 6-7:30 p.m.

DON'T MISS ...

New work of Art Revealed at the Reception

Reception Sponsored by The College of Business and Economics, the MBA Office and The Office of Diversity & Equity

Speaking Event Sponsored by Department of Criminal Justice and the Scholar Citizen Initiative with additional support from Student Health Awareness Club, SAVES and Alpha Phi Sigma

