ELIGIBILITY

This competition is open to any artists, ages 18 and up, who live in Southwest Virginia – which for the purposes of this exhibition extends from Bedford and Rockbridge Counties to Lee County as shown on the map. Any residents of the highlighted counties and cities are eligible to participate.

ENTRY RULES

- Works that hang are limited to 84 inches in height, 48 inches in width and 45 lbs in weight. 3D pieces cannot weigh more than 75 lbs.
- The artwork must have been created within the last 18 months (after October 2017).
- All 2D works must be framed or gallery ready. Wire is required and must be properly and securely attached to the frame and cannot be attached with tape or staples. Entrants should be aware that most jurors take presentation into account when judging.
- Each work must have an identifying label securely attached to the back or bottom. Stones and metals in jewelry pieces must be identified.
- Accepted works must remain on display for the entire duration of the exhibition.
- The organizers are not responsible for works that are not picked up during the pick-up dates (June 21-24).

Works that do not comply with these regulations will be disqualified.

JUROR

Entries for the exhibition will be juried in a “blind” process. Our juror for this year’s exhibition is:

Patrick Shaw Cable

Cable is the Deputy Director of Exhibitions and Education at the Taubman Museum in Roanoke, VA. He received his Ph.D. in Art History from Case Western Reserve University, and his dissertation reconsidered the art and life of the French Impressionist Gustave Caillebotte. He has held curatorial positions at the El Paso Museum of Art, the Cleveland Museum of Art, and the Art Gallery of Hamilton in Ontario, Canada. He has lectured and published extensively in the arts. Recent publications include the exhibition catalogs Renoir to Remington: Impressionism to the American West (2014) and Julie Speed: East of the Sun and West of the Moon (2018).

AWARDS

There will be cash awards, including a top award of $500 for Best in Show.

SALE OF ART

Sales are encouraged. Anyone interested in purchasing a work will be put into direct contact with the artist. The Radford University Art Museum does not handle any sales exchanges. Although we will not charge the standard 40%-50% sales commission, we would appreciate a donation of 20% of the sale price to help support this exhibition.
