On October 24-25, 2016, the Radford University Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders (COSD) will be hosting a Site Visit team from the Council on Academic Accreditation (CAA) in Speech-Language Pathology to review our graduate program for reaccreditation.

YOU ARE INVITED to a PUBLIC MEETING for the opportunity to address the Site Visit team.

When: Monday, October 24, 2016 at 4:30 – 5:30 p.m.

Where: Waldron Hall (Radford University), Room 226

Who: Faculty, administrators, students, clients, community professionals, the general public

Why: To discuss Radford University COSD’s program compliance with the Standards for Accreditation of Graduate Education Program in Speech-Language Pathology

If you are unable to attend the Public Meeting but would like provide input to the CAA, you may do so by submitting written comments to the CAA Accreditation office, prior to the accreditation site visit, no later than fifteen (15) days before the first day of the scheduled visit (Note: this deadline would be Sunday, October 9, 2016).

Comments provided must relate to a program’s compliance with the published Standard for Accreditation of Graduate Education Programs in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology (Standards) in effect at the time comments are submitted, and identify RU as the program seeking reaccreditation with the CAA.

All written testimony – including comments faxed or submitted as email attachments – must include the commenter’s name, address, and telephone contact information and the commenter’s relation to the program in order for Accreditation staff to verify the source of the testimony. All comments must be signed.
