SPRING CITL FILM CHALLENGE OFFICIAL RULES

SHORT-SHORT ‘FIVE BY FIVE’ CATEGORY

1. All Radford University, NRV area Intermediate and High School students are invited to participate.
2. Submissions must feature five distinct shots, each for a duration of 5 seconds, for a total 25 second duration. This DOES NOT include titles or credits.
3. Your film MUST have a title, as well as full credits for cast and crew, as well as any other attributions.
4. All submissions MUST be accompanied by a challenge entry form.
5. Participants will submit their movie by first uploading it to YouTube, and then submitting the online submission (linked on CITL site) which will include the video URL. Submission must be received by the deadline in order to be considered for an award. Late submissions will not be eligible for judging.
6. Participants may not use media from commercial films and programs.
7. Participants making use of public domain or open-license materials for music or adjunct media must credit ALL authors. Fair Use Guidelines for copy-written music specifies 10% or 30 seconds, whichever is less.

SHORT FILM CATEGORY

1. All Radford University, NRV area Intermediate and High School students are invited to participate.
2. Participants must produce an original, creative work. Participants may use whatever means and techniques they wish to produce their movie.
3. Movies must be produced within the challenge period and must include ALL elements of the theme for award consideration.
4. Within the bounds of the challenge, participants can make whatever kind of movie they wish. Regarding content, consider what you want to have screened in public with your name on it.
5. Movie duration must be at least one minute and no longer than five minutes. Duration DOES NOT include titles and credits.
6. Your film MUST have a title, as well as full credits for cast and crew, as well as any other attributions.
7. All submissions MUST be accompanied by a challenge entry form.
8. Participants will submit their movie by first uploading it to YouTube, and then submitting the online submission (linked on CITL site) which will include the video URL. Submission must be received by the deadline in order to be considered for an award. Late submissions will not be eligible for judging.
9. Participants may not use media from commercial films and programs.
10. Participants making use of public domain or open-license materials for music or adjunct media must credit ALL authors. Fair Use Guidelines for copy-written music specifies 10% or 30 seconds, whichever is less.