- (1.b) Administrative account for contractual costs of bringing high profile speakers to campus.
- (1.c) Administrative account for the operations of the Greek Life Office.
- (1.d) Administrative account for providing a student leadership conference and student awards.
- (1.e) Credit card charges for ticket sales through the student union.
- (1.f) Administrative overhead charge by the university assessed to auxiliary enterprises for services rendered.

- (2) Funding is provided to student organizations in the College of Visual and Performing Arts to support experiential learning by exposing students to the creative process in practice with distinguished guest speakers and artists, master classes and workshops with internationally renowned professional performers.

- (3) Diversity Awareness Programming Board (DAP) - Sponsors cultural, education, social, and entertainment activities that stimulate interest and heightened awareness of the contribution of minorities across the world. DAP board is open to all RU Students.

- (4) R-SPaCE sponsors free or low cost activities providing educational, and entertaining events to promote student engagement and involvement including large concerts, weekly movie showings, novelty events, arcade games, late night programs, etc.

- (5.a) Provides partial funding to recognized sports clubs that participate in collegiate leagues similar to those of varsity teams.

- (5.b) RU Peer Educators provide information and resources in an informal environment conducive to exchange and open communications. Peer Educators are students certified in peer education that develop programs designed to facilitate the open and honest discussion of health and safety issues and the development of responsible habits and attitudes around these topics.

- (5.c) The Appalachian Events Committee (AEC) is made up of students, faculty and staff members who are interested in the Appalachian region, its history, culture and preservation. The Appalachian Events Committee sponsors a number of events on campus that are open to the campus community and general public. AEC members also attend seminars, concerts and conventions that feature Appalachia and its people.

- (5.d) Club Programming Committee - Provides funding to registered student organizations that are not directly funded by SFC. Funding Organizations submit applications and (CPC) is available for registered student organizations to host on-campus programs or to attend conferences or other out-of-town activities.

- (5.e) Primarily used for outdoor recreation equipment and supplies. Costs now covered under student recreation fee.

- (5.f) Administrative account to respond to changes in enrollment fluctuations and decline in fee revenue. Also used to support one-time funding requests approved by SFC during academic year.

- (5.g) Administrative account to pay students in designated leadership roles in SGA, DAP, R-Space, and Student Media outlined in Student Finance Committee Guidelines.

- (6) Student Media groups strive to inform, educate, entertain, inspire and learn about the process involved in the publication or broadcast of the various media outlets.

- (7) The Student Government Association is the legislative arm of the student body. Through special initiatives and programming SGA strives to insure that all students' voices are heard and engage students in important political issues. The SGA also provides for programs and activities that support the unity and diversity of the university.
