CONGRATS on your acceptance!

new highlander

Checklist

CONFIRM your enrollment

We're excited to welcome you to Radford! To make your commitment official and confirm your spot, submit your deposit no later than May 1 (freshman) and June 1 (transfer). All students are required to submit a deposit to confirm their enrollment. You can pay your deposit online by eCheck or credit card, search for the Admitted Student Task Center in your OneCampus and click the “Confirm Enrollment” button. Scan the QR code above for step-by-step instructions.

1. Activate your OneCampus account
   OneCampus is an online portal that you will use for essential enrollment steps. You’ll need your username and claim code in order to activate your OneCampus account; both can be found in the upper right corner of your admissions letter. For step-by-step instructions, visit www.radford.edu/activate.

2. Enroll in Duo
   Make sure to set up Duo during your first log in to the OneCampus portal to ensure your ability to continue to log into your account. For step-by-step instructions, visit www.radford.edu/duo.

COMPLETE your FAFSA

For maximum financial aid consideration, we encourage you to submit your Free Application for Federal Student Aid, or FAFSA, as soon as possible. Radford University’s school code for the FAFSA is 003732.

1. Complete your FAFSA at studentaid.gov.
2. FAFSA Follow-up
   Check the email address you used on your admissions application regularly— if we need any additional information to process your application, you will be notified there. Once your FAFSA is submitted, allow Radford University two weeks to receive and process it.

COMPLETE your enrollment

REGISTER for campus housing

Our summer orientation programs offer the first step along the road of transition, helping you to build a network of resources as you begin your Highlander journey. Family members are encouraged to attend Quest with you to learn about ways they can support you. Register for Quest in your OneCampus account after submitting your enrollment deposit. Look for the Quest icon in the Admitted Student Task Center.

APPLY for campus housing

Radford offers 15 different residence halls. Check out www.radford.edu/housing-tour for a preview then complete your on-campus housing application and contract in your OneCampus account. Look for the Housing icon in the Admitted Student Task Center.

1. If you prefer to pay by mail, you may send a check to the Office of Admissions, P.O. Box 6903, Radford, VA 24142 (be sure to include the student’s name and ID number!).
   To pay in person, you may come to the Office of Admissions in Russell Hall.

2. OneCampus is an online portal that you will use for essential enrollment steps and also throughout your time at Radford. To check your Radford email, schedule an appointment with your advisor and more.

3. Duo is a cloud-based security company providing two-factor authentication services. Two-factor authentication enhances security by adding a second layer of authentication to your login.

4. In addition to state and federal financial aid as determined through your FAFSA, Radford University offers approximately $2 million in Foundation scholarships. These scholarships are application-based; you can apply for these online at https://radford.academicworks.com.

5. Many community groups offer scholarships—check with your school counselor for opportunities in your local area!

6. During Quest, you will meet with academic advisors who will assist you with first-semester course selection and registration. You will leave Quest as a full-fledged Highlander with your questions answered, your classes scheduled and your student ID in hand.

Frequently Asked Questions

What if I prefer to pay my deposit in-person or by mail?
• If you prefer to pay by mail, you may send a check to the Office of Admissions, P.O. Box 6903, Radford, VA 24142 (be sure to include the student’s name and ID number!).
   To pay in person, you may come to the Office of Admissions in Russell Hall.

What is OneCampus?
• OneCampus is an online portal that you will use for essential enrollment steps and also throughout your time at Radford. To check your Radford email, schedule an appointment with your advisor and more.

Why do I need Duo?
• Duo is a cloud-based security company providing two-factor authentication services. Two-factor authentication enhances security by adding a second layer of authentication to your login.

Where can I find additional financial aid?
• In addition to state and federal financial aid as determined through your FAFSA, Radford University offers approximately $2 million in Foundation scholarships. These scholarships are application-based; you can apply for these online at https://radford.academicworks.com.

Many community groups offer scholarships—check with your school counselor for opportunities in your local area!

When will I get my class schedule and ID?
• During Quest, you will meet with academic advisors who will assist you with first-semester course selection and registration. You will leave Quest as a full-fledged Highlander with your questions answered, your classes scheduled and your student ID in hand.

What if I need medical housing accommodations?
• Admitted students seeking a medical housing accommodation should contact the Center for Accessibility Services at 540-831-6350 to speak with a specialist and submit documentation no later than June 10.
Hello from the Highlander family! Choosing a college is one of the most exciting decisions you will make, and it is our pleasure to be working with you during this exciting time. This packet is designed with you in mind. The New Student Checklist will provide you with a guide to confirm your enrollment at Radford University. Included in the following pages are step-by-step instructions to help you through the process. There’s also an online version of the checklist available at www.radford.edu/admitted.

We invite you to connect with our staff to make sure you have all of your questions answered. You can learn more about our virtual and in-person visit opportunities at www.radford.edu/visit.