  - ✓ (ON-GOING) 2021-22 GSR was 93%. 2022-23 GSR will come out this summer.
Student-Athlete Experience

Challenges facing Athletic Training

• The demand for athletic trainers outweighs the supply
• New NCAA Transformation Committee language to increase support in this area

Athletic Facilities Feasibility Study

• Partnered with Synergy Sports, LLC from Charlotte, NC
• Develop a comprehensive feasibility study, market assessment, and competitive analysis for Cupp Stadium (Track/Soccer), Softball Stadium and the Dedmon Center
GOAL UPDATE:

Create a robust and sustainable mental wellness model for our student-athletes and staff

• Offer a Mental Wellness Program (“Taking Care of Yourself and Others”) for our staff annually
  ✓ (COMPLETED) Completed in early Fall 2022 with approximately 75% staff participation. The remaining staff participated in a “Recognize and Refer” program with the Counselling and SAVES department.

• Have 90% of our student-athletes participate in the SAVES Department’s “Healthy Highlanders” program
  ✓ (COMPLETED) All of our student-athletes participated in this program that was split into three different sections in the Fall and Winter.

• Have coaches allow 1-2 mental wellness days for any student-athlete, whenever requested, without questions
  ✓ (COMPLETED) This was added or our internal team policies manual for Sports Medicine.

Create a robust and sustainable mental wellness model for our student-athletes and staff

- Collaborate with the Counselor Education Department to lead a once per week “Healthy Minds” Mindfulness and Mental Wellness support group
  - ✓ (ON-GOING) Started this Fall with meetings taking place every week during the semester. During the Spring semester we have 10 hrs a week with in-house counselors in the Dedmon Center.
- Work with the NRVCS to provide three or four QPR Suicide Prevention Training Courses, as well as, a Mental Health First Aid Course that a minimum of 25% of our staff would participate in.
  - ✓ (ON-GOING) This started this Fall and meetings have taken place every week so far. We will continue throughout the academic year each week.
