Ms. Artis shared that the committee heard a detailed report on the goals and objectives for fundraising for the 2010-2011 fiscal year and the plans for alumni relations activities.

Ms. Artis encouraged everyone to participate in the annual fund drive and stressed 100 percent participation from the Board of Visitors in support of Radford University.

REPORT ON THE RADFORD UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION
Mr. Matthew B. Crisp, Board Liaison to the RU Foundation Board, provided information on the endowment funds of other 4-year institutions in Virginia in comparison to Radford’s as of June 30th, 2009. He welcomed
Mr. John Cox as the new Executive Director of the Radford University Foundation and shared that he looked forward to working with him.

Mr. Crisp reported that during the 2009-2010 fiscal year the Foundation had achieved an 8.6 percent net growth on the funds invested, which was encouraging. He also provided that at the last meeting of the Foundation they had a presentation from Mr. Kelly Underwood, Director for University Advancement for Athletics and Mr. Michael Hurt, a member of the Foundation Board, detailing the on-going renovations to the RU baseball facility. Mr. Crisp shared that the Foundation Board was scheduled to meet that afternoon and would receive a presentation from the Spider Management Group and that he would provide a full report at the next meeting.

SCHEV ORIENTATION REPORT
Rector Musselwhite reported that he and Mr. Cassaday had attended the SCHEV orientation in Richmond on October 20. He related that presentations were given by SCHEV officials, the Deputy Secretary of Education, and former rectors and former members of Boards of Visitors of Virginia’s public institutions. He expressed regret that every board member could not attend. He said that throughout the year he wanted to invite presenters from the orientation program to speak to RU’s Board to aid members in understanding the meaning and purpose of BOV service. Mr. Musselwhite then called upon Mr. Cassaday to share his thoughts on the orientation.

Mr. Cassaday reported that everything presented was relevant, from best practices to how the board should interface with the Rector, the President, the deans, and faculty.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT
President Kyle reported on the accomplishments and activities at Radford University that had occurred since the September board meetings. She then called on Mr. Danny M. Kemp, Chief Information Officer and Vice President for Information Technology.

Mr. Kemp provided information on the fully integrated information system (Banner); a project almost completed pending final approval by the Executive Committee and a final report to the Virginia Information Technologies Agency (VITA). Mr. Kemp reported that the project had achieved all of the major objectives identified at inception on time and under budget and expressed thanks to all involved and gave special thanks to Ms. Artis for her leadership on the project’s Executive Committee. He also provided that project refinements would be ongoing to meet the changing needs of the university.

Mr. Kemp then shared information on the redesigned RU web site and gave a demonstration for the Board. He provided that the new site would be launched in phases beginning with the beta version of the core site on November 30, 2010. Mr. Kemp introduced Ms. Jaime C. Hunt, the new Director of Web Communications and also thanked Mr. Charles Hayes the project coordinator.
