CALL TO ORDER

Mrs. Mary Ann Hovis, Rector of the Board, called the meeting to order at 9:00 a.m., Friday, February 17, 2006 in the Martin Hall Board Room.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Mr. Fraim made the motion that the minutes for the November 14-15, 2005 meeting of the Board of Visitors be approved. Seconded by Mr. Blake, the motion carried.

PRESENTATIONS

2004-05 Audit

Ms. Margaret McManus, University Auditor, introduced Mr. William Cole, Deputy Auditor of Public Accounts. Mr. Cole presented the report on the APA’s audit of the university’s financial statements for the year ending June 30, 2005, on which the university received a clean opinion. He also distributed and discussed certain communications required by the Statements on Auditing Standards. Lastly, Mr. Cole presented the report on the agreed-upon procedures of engagement for the university’s Intercollegiate Athletics Programs for the year ending June 30, 2005.

2006 Legislative Update

President Kyle reported that we currently only know what the Governor submitted in his budget. The House and Senate versions will be released on Sunday, February 19. President Kyle thanked those Board members who participated in Radford University’s Advocacy Day on February 9 and declared it a success.

Faculty Salary Issues

As requested, Wil Stanton presented information on Faculty Salary Issues including comparisons of Radford University’s peer institutions and other selected Virginia institutions with their peer institutions. The presentation also included information about the process of selecting peer institutions by the State Council of Higher Education and the importance of the relationship between our peer institutions and the ability for Radford University to adequately fund faculty salaries and University programs.

Budget Allocation to Academic Affairs

As requested by the Board at the August 2005 meeting, David Burdette reported on the internal allocation of funds for fiscal year 2005-2006.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION REPORT

Ms. Stephanie Harmon presented the Student Government Association Report which included information concerning the SGA’s petition to Radford City Council. The students of Radford University want to make the city council formally aware of their intent to enhance their relationship with the City which has been demonstrated by thousands of students signing the petition. She also reported on the success of the Student Advocacy Day in Richmond, Virginia on February 9, 2006. Rector Hovis stated that the students “represented themselves well in Richmond.”

FACULTY SENATE REPORT

Dr. Claire Waldron presented the Faculty Senate Report by thanking the Board of Visitors for their service to the university, particularly their enthusiastic participation in RU Advocacy Day. She stated that it is crucial for the success of RU and President Kyle, that each Board member advocate for RU with the Executive & Legislative Branch of government and with SCHEV.
