In the case of the State Board for Community Colleges, representatives appointed by the Board shall be chosen from individuals elected by the Chancellor's Faculty
Advisory Committee. Such representatives shall be appointed to serve terms of not less than one 12-month period, which shall be coterminous with the institution's fiscal year, or for such terms as may be mutually agreed to by the State Board for Community Colleges and the Chancellor's Faculty Advisory Committee, or by the local community college board or the board of visitors, as the case may be, and the institution's faculty senate or other equivalent group.

(2004, cc. 499, 519.)

Proposed Amendment:

Section 7 - Non-voting, Advisory Members of the Board of Visitors

The Board of Visitors shall appoint all non-voting, advisory members. The terms of office for all non-voting, advisory members shall be one year, beginning with the August meeting of the Board of Visitors. Non-voting, advisory members of the Board of Visitors may be reappointed for one additional term. The term of membership may be reduced at the request of the non-voting, advisory member or at the discretion of the Board of Visitors.

In Keeping with the Code of Virginia, 23-9.2:4.1., enacted in 2004, the boards of visitors of four-year public institutions of higher education, including Radford University, may appoint one or more nonvoting, advisory faculty representative to their respective boards.

A. Appointment Process

Nominations for the appointment of any non-voting, advisory members of the Board of Visitors that the Board of Visitors is required to appoint in accord with statutes or that the Board elects to appoint shall come directly to the Board of Visitors from the President.

Faculty representatives to the Boards of Visitors shall be chosen from those persons elected by the faculty, faculty senate, or other equivalent group of the institution. Such representatives shall be appointed to serve terms of not less than one 12-month period, which is coterminous with the institution’s fiscal year, or for terms mutually agreed to by the board of visitors and the institution’s faculty senate or other equivalent group. The Board of Visitors may exclude the faculty representative from discussions of faculty grievances, faculty or staff disciplinary matters, salaries, or other matters, in their discretion.

The President shall present to the Board of Visitors at least two nominees and no more than three nominees for each non-voting, advisory appointment. The slate(s) of nominees submitted by the President shall be unranked. The President shall provide the Board of Visitors with information about each nominee that will allow the Board of Visitors to understand the experiences and qualifications that each nominee can bring to the position for which he or she is being nominated.

In the case of student representation on the Board of Visitors, the President shall consult with Internal Governance bodies, such as Senates and the Student Government Association, and solicit from them potential nominees. The President shall also consult with Vice Presidents and solicit from them potential nominees. The President may consult and confer with others as he or she deems appropriate in order to develop a slate of potential nominees for all non-voting, advisory positions on the Board of Visitors.

The President shall transmit the nominees for all non-voting, advisory members to the Board of Visitors at the spring meeting of the Board, a meeting that is usually held in May prior to Commencement. The slate(s) of nominees and all materials about each nominee shall be sent to the members of the Board of Visitors in advance of that meeting.

At the spring meeting of the Board of Visitors, the members of the Board of Visitors shall elect from the nominees the non-voting, advisory member(s).

Election of a non-voting, advisory member shall require at least a two-thirds vote of the quorum of the voting members of the Board of Visitors. In the event that no nominee for a non-voting, advisory position receives a two-thirds vote of the quorum of the voting members of the Board of Visitors, that position shall remain vacant. The President shall, in turn, be instructed to develop another slate of nominees and submit those nominees at the next meeting of the Board of Visitors. If during the subsequent meeting of the Board of Visitors no nominee for that non-voting, advisory position receives the necessary vote to be seated, that non-voting, advisory position shall remain vacant for the remainder of that academic year.
