Among other items President Kyle mentioned in her report was the Radford University Student Awards Ceremony, RU’s 17th Annual International Banquet, the establishment of the Office of Emergency Preparedness, and the implementation of the new Banner Administrative system.

President Kyle stated that a major accomplishment in Richmond for Radford University was the Governor’s signature on legislation defining Level II criteria as required by the 2005 Restructured Higher Education Financial and Administrative Operations Act, which will provide additional decentralization opportunities in the functional areas of information technology, procurement, and capital projects.

The President reported the addition of four new deans to Radford University: Dr. Dennis Grady, College of Graduate and Professional Studies, Dr. Faye Gilbert, College of Business and Economics, Dr. Brian Conniff, College of Humanities and Behavioral Sciences, and Dr. Orion Rogers, College of Science and Technology. Also named was Lynn Zoch as the founding director of the new School of Communication.
