E Area:  Learning Goal: To explore humanistic or artistic expression through inquiry or creativity.
Learning Outcome 1:  Students demonstrate understanding of diverse ideas, languages, products, or processes of humanistic inquiry or artistic expression.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 1 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 1 as well. Based on learning outcome four of each HIST 3xx course, students “acquire a broader knowledge and deeper understanding of key issues.” Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to use these artifacts to assess how well students demonstrate understanding of diverse ideas present in the humanistic inquiry and expression evident in historical sources.
Learning Outcome 2: Students critically evaluate, synthesize, or create forms of human expression or inquiry.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 2 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 2 as well. Based on learning outcome two of each HIST 3xx course, students “develop disciplinary research skills . . . to . . . analyze primary and secondary source evidence, processing and organizing the resultant data.” Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to use these artifacts to assess how well students critically evaluate, synthesize, and create forms of human expression or inquiry.
SACS Coverage: Students must take both HIST 101 and 102. Both are SACS Approvable General Education courses. Students in this major will be guaranteed to take six credit hours of SACS Humanities, as well as twelve total credit hours of SACS-approved General Education.  REAL Area Coverage: Students must both 101 and 102, plus any two 3xx coded EU, and any two 3xx coded GL. Courses coded EU or GL are also coded REAL E. Thus, students get at least 18 hours of E, with at least twelve of those hours at 300 level.

A Area: Learning Goal: To examine the context and interactions of culture(s) and/or behavior(s).
Learning Outcome 1: Students describe behaviors, beliefs, cultures, social institutions, and/or environments.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 1 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 1 as well. Based on learning outcome one of each HIST 3xx course, students “practice thinking critically and analytically about historical issues”; based on learning outcome four of each HIST 3xx course, students “acquire a broader knowledge and deeper understanding of key issues, themes, personalities, and events.” Meeting these outcomes requires students to be able to describe behaviors and beliefs. Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to the artifacts referenced above to assess how well students describe behaviors and beliefs.
Learning Outcome 2: Students analyze the interactions of behaviors, beliefs, cultures, social institutions, and/or environments.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 2 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 2 as well. Based on learning outcome three of each HIST 3xx course, students “apply their critical thinking, research, and compositional skills to the creation and presentation of thesis driven essays that discuss, for example, historical social, economic, political, and/or cultural developments and that address issues such as the causes and consequences of historical change and continuity.” Based on learning outcome two of each HIST 3xx course, the skills that students apply include the ability to “analyze . . . evidence.” Meeting these outcomes requires students to be able to analyze interactions of behaviors and beliefs. Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to use the artifacts referenced above to assess how well students analyze interactions of behaviors and beliefs.
SACS Coverage: Both HIST 111 and HIST 112 are SACS General Education approvable, which guarantees that students in this major will have six hours of SACS-approved general education social science. REAL Area Coverage: Students must take 111 and 112, plus any three 3xx courses coded US. Courses coded US are also coded REAL A. Thus, students get in this major get at least fifteen hours of REAL A courses, with at least nine of those hours at 300 level.

E Area:  Learning Goal: To explore humanistic or artistic expression through inquiry or creativity.
Learning Outcome 1:  Students demonstrate understanding of diverse ideas, languages, products, or processes of humanistic inquiry or artistic expression.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 1 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 1 as well. Based on learning outcome four of each HIST 3xx course, students “acquire a broader knowledge and deeper understanding of key issues.” Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to use these artifacts to assess how well students demonstrate understanding of diverse ideas present in the humanistic inquiry and expression evident in historical sources.
Learning Outcome 2: Students critically evaluate, synthesize, or create forms of human expression or inquiry.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 2 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 2 as well. Based on learning outcome two of each HIST 3xx course, students “develop disciplinary research skills . . . to . . . analyze primary and secondary source evidence, processing and organizing the resultant data.” Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to use these artifacts to assess how well students critically evaluate, synthesize, and create forms of human expression or inquiry.
SACS Coverage: Students must take both HIST 101 and 102. Both are SACS Approvable General Education courses. Students in this major will be guaranteed to take six credit hours of SACS Humanities, as well as twelve total credit hours of SACS-approved General Education.  REAL Area Coverage: Students must both 101 and 102, plus any two 3xx coded EU, and any two 3xx coded GL. Courses coded EU or GL are also coded REAL E. Thus, students get at least 18 hours of E, with at least twelve of those hours at 300 level.

A Area:  Learning Goal: To examine the context and interactions of culture(s) and/or behavior(s).
Learning Outcome 1: Students describe behaviors, beliefs, cultures, social institutions, and/or environments.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 1 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 1 as well. Based on learning outcome one of each HIST 3xx course, students “practice thinking critically and analytically about historical issues”; based on learning outcome four of each HIST 3xx course, students “acquire a broader knowledge and deeper understanding of key issues, themes, personalities, and events.” Meeting these outcomes requires students to be able to describe behaviors and beliefs. Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to the artifacts referenced above to assess how well students describe behaviors and beliefs.
Learning Outcome 2: Students analyze the interactions of behaviors, beliefs, cultures, social institutions, and/or environments.	Assessment of Learning Outcome 2 will be completed as part of the larger process of assessing programmatic outcomes. To complete the history major, students successfully complete HIST 295 and HIST 495. The major writing projects in these courses, as well as an exit interview completed in HIST 495, are used to assess programmatic outcomes and will be used for Learning Outcome 2 as well. Based on learning outcome three of each HIST 3xx course, students “apply their critical thinking, research, and compositional skills to the creation and presentation of thesis driven essays that discuss, for example, historical social, economic, political, and/or cultural developments and that address issues such as the causes and consequences of historical change and continuity.” Based on learning outcome two of each HIST 3xx course, the skills that students apply include the ability to “analyze . . . evidence.” Meeting these outcomes requires students to be able to analyze interactions of behaviors and beliefs. Thus, the Assessment Coordinator’s committee will be able to use the artifacts referenced above to assess how well students analyze interactions of behaviors and beliefs.
SACS Coverage: Both HIST 111 and HIST 112 are SACS General Education approvable, which guarantees that students in this major will have six hours of SACS-approved general education social science.  REAL Area Coverage: Students must take 111 and 112, plus any three 3xx courses coded US. Courses coded US are also coded REAL A. Thus, students get in this major get at least fifteen hours of REAL A courses, with at least nine of those hours at 300 level.

E Area: Learning Goal: To explore humanistic or artistic expression through inquiry or creativity.
Learning Outcome 1: Students demonstrate understanding of diverse ideas, languages, products, or processes of humanistic inquiry or artistic expression.	To complete the history minor, based on learning outcome four of each HIST 3xx course, students “acquire a broader knowledge and deeper understanding of key issues.” Thus, students will be able to demonstrate understanding of diverse ideas present in the humanistic inquiry and expression evident in historical sources. Therefore, students minoring in history should be well prepared for the university-wide REAL assessment of this learning outcome for Area E, which the program plans to participate in.
Learning Outcome 2: Students critically evaluate, synthesize, or create forms of human expression or inquiry.	To complete the history minor, based on learning outcome two of each HIST 3xx course, students “develop disciplinary research skills . . . to . . . analyze primary and secondary source evidence, processing and organizing the resultant data.” Thus, students will be able to critically evaluate, synthesize, and create forms of human expression or inquiry. Therefore, students minoring in history should be well prepared for the university-wide REAL assessment of this learning outcome for Area E, which the program plans to participate in.
SACS Coverage: While HIST 101 and 102 are technically electives, students must take one or the other. Both are SACS Approvable General Education courses. Students in this minor will be guaranteed to take three credit hours of SACS Humanities, as well as nine total credit hours of SACS-approved General Education. REAL Area Coverage: Students must take 101 or 102, plus any one 3xx coded EU, and any one 3xx coded GL. Courses coded EU or GL are also coded REAL E. Thus, students get nine hours of E, with at least three hours at 300 level.

A Area: Learning Goal: To examine the context and interactions of culture(s) and/or behavior(s).
Learning Outcome 1: Students describe behaviors, beliefs, cultures, social institutions, and/or environments.	To complete the history minor, based on learning outcome one of each HIST 3xx course, students “practice thinking critically and analytically about historical issues.” Also, based on learning outcome four of each HIST 3xx course, students “acquire a broader knowledge and deeper understanding of key issues, themes, personalities, and events.” Meeting these outcomes requires students to be able to describe behaviors and beliefs. Therefore, students minoring in history should be well prepared for the university-wide REAL assessment of this learning outcome for Area A, which the program plans to participate in.
Learning Outcome 2: Students analyze the interactions of behaviors, beliefs, cultures, social institutions, and/or environments.	To complete the history minor, based on learning outcome three of each HIST 3xx course, students “apply their critical thinking, research, and compositional skills to the creation and presentation of thesis driven essays that discuss, for example, historical social, economic, political, and/or cultural developments and that address issues such as the causes and consequences of historical change and continuity.” Also, based on learning outcome two of each HIST 3xx course, the skills that students apply include the ability to “analyze . . . evidence.” Meeting these outcomes requires students to be able to analyze interactions of behaviors and beliefs. Therefore, students minoring in history should be well prepared for the university-wide REAL assessment of this learning outcome for Area A, which the program plans to participate in.
SACS Coverage: Both HIST 111 and HIST 112 are SACS General Education approvable. That represents six of nine guaranteed hours of SACS Gen Ed for students in this minor. And it guarantees that students in this minor will have six hours of SACS-approved general education social science. REAL Area Coverage: Students must take 111 and 112, plus any one 3xx coded US. Courses coded US are also coded REAL A. Thus, students get nine hours of A, with at least three hours at 300 level.
