ENGL 200

Literary Texts and Contexts

Dr. Lou Gallo

Are you a poet and don't know it? Hey, that rhymes. The "texts" for this course will include the study of some classic and contemporary poetry, but mostly, your own poetry. We proceed in workshop fashion, very casual but intense, hopefully more fun than toil. Let your verbal talents shine forth! Speak your mind! Poetry, like music and painting, is an art. We humans have always needed it, from the dawn of consciousness to now.
