2020-21 Meal Plan Information

“It’s MORE Than Just Food,... It’s a Lifestyle”
This Year’s Theme

Our goal with this theme is to spread positivity within our dining locations and showcase our true love for food! More than ever we also want to ensure our campus feels a sense of community and realizes our brands care about your student and their safety.
- Temperatures taken daily at each location upon arrival
- Masks worn by all associates at all times
- Gloves changed every 15 minutes or when dirty/torn
- Uniform coverings are worn as needed
- Face shields to be worn if a mask is not suitable or in high contamination areas
- Sanitize hands when handwashing isn’t available
- Wash hands on timed schedule following proper procedures
- Require all visitors to sanitize hands and put on a mask
- Testing when available/local guidelines
- Social distancing messaging at clock-in and staggered break times

Don't be shy, self-identify!

Don’t Be Shy, Self-Identify – it’s easy!

1. Register your allergy concerns with us
2. Look for an email prior to the start of the semester with information on how to log your allergen on Dine on Campus
3. Talk with a Manager or Chef on duty at any location to assist you with meal options using your Allergen Card (if needed)

WHICH MEAL PLAN BEST FITS ME?

ON CAMPUS RESIDENT

I prefer the all-you-care-to-eat dining halls

15 OR 19 PLUS PLAN

This plan provides 19 meals per week in our two all you can eat dining halls and $150 Food Dollars which can be spent at all retail locations.

I want to try a little bit of everything

FLEX PLAN

This plan you receive $660 Flex Dollars at a declining balance + $30 vending dollars. With the use of this plan you receive a built-in discount of 50-70% all dining purchases.

*What’s a Flex Dollar? When using flex dollars, the meal plan discount is automatically applied on the front-end dollar amount. Meaning, the price paid for meals is 50% (retail) or 66-70% (dining halls) below what is advertised.

*The Flex Plan is the default (and most popular) plan for on-campus residents, so if you’re satisfied with it, no need to do anything on your end!
