What classes and subjects can the HKC with?

Our Academic Coaches have taken many of the courses you will take in your freshman and sophomore years. In addition to the most common classes, we have Coaches who specialize in areas like writing support, study strategies, and time management, who can help you improve these skills no matter what course you're taking.

What is Academic Coaching and why should I use it?

We like to call Academic Coaching TutoringPlus. An Academic Coach is a fellow Radford Student who can meet with you up to twice a week, depending on your needs. They learn about your goals and strengths, and assist you in building the effective habits and skills that will help you succeed in college. Academic Coaches often specialize in an academic subject, and can help you student develop subject-specific study strategies, understand key concepts from class, prepare for exams, and improve general success skills like time management and notetaking.

HKC helped improve my skills. I came in not knowing how to study properly, and now I know what studying skills work for me. Anastasia

“Once you get the material, you get less frustrated; it gives you a sense of empowerment”

Juliana Pasqualucci, Pre-Nursing major on receiving Coaching in general chemistry

What if I'm not sure what kind of help I need?

Our skilled office staff are students who trained to talk with you and listen to your needs. They will ask questions to learn more about your class experiences or plans, and can recommend a service or even a specific Coach. They can also help you find the assistance that best fits your schedule.

When should I come in?

The earlier, the better! We encourage students to connect with a Coach in the first two weeks of the semester. This gives you a chance to start the semester strong by reviewing the expectations and assignments with a partner, developing learning strategies for a new or unfamiliar class, and getting a jump start on effective note taking. A Coach can help you understand expectations like attendance, office hours, and how frequently you should be reviewing information from the course.
