Communication and Media Studies

COMMUNICATION AND MEDIA STUDIES | HEMPHILL HALL 1006

Logos, slogans, jingles and brand mascots are essential components of communication campaigns. Join School of Communication faculty to test your knowledge in some fun, interactive communication challenges. Students and family can also explore our learning spaces, including a Social Media and Research Technologies (SMART) Lab, computer labs, creative storytelling collaborative spaces, a podcasting studio and audio and video studios.

Forensics Lab

CRIMINAL JUSTICE | HEMPHILL HALL 3009

Fingerprints, tool analysis and bullet trajectory, oh my! If you are interested in trying your hand at crime scene investigation, come visit the Department of Criminal Justice's Forensic Lab Classroom. Students and families will learn about the lab's various crime-scene technologies and will conduct some fingerprint analysis. The session will conclude with a discussion of other exciting features, facilities and programming within the department.

#Book-Tok

ENGLISH | HEMPHILL HALL 4126

Browse our collection, choose a book and create a 20-30 second talk for your own TikTok video. Take a "shelfie" with a book you choose and post to your Instagram! Time will be provided for Q&A with English faculty on career options, concentrations and specialized interests from drama to linguistics and all points in between.

The World and More

FOREIGN LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES | HEMPHILL HALL 4013

So you're a language major? You have questions; we have answers! Come visit the Language Lab to explore your language interests and opportunities and meet faculty. Lots of Q&A time provided.

ROTC | ATRIUM OF HEMPHILL HALL

The Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) is a college elective that develops Leadership Skills in our students as they prepare for Military Service. Army ROTC offers a commission as a Second Lieutenant in either the active Army or Reserve Forces in a variety of career fields. Students can participate in the program for up to 2 years without a commitment to the Army. This minor is the first step towards becoming an Army Officer upon graduation. For more information about the program, contact the Recruiting Operations Officer at arotc@radford.edu or visit our table in Hemphill Hall.
