Are you on the reunion list?
Return this card and we’ll add you to the reunion list of classmates planning to attend. Your participation will motivate others, so send in this form today!

☐ Yes, I’ll likely attend! Put me on the reunion list!
☐ No, I will probably not be able to attend.

Please print your name as you would like it to appear on the reunion list that will be posted on the Web. Be sure to use the name that will be recognizable to your RU friends (first, maiden, last).

Name _______________________________
Class Year ____________________________

Consider volunteering by:
☐ Calling classmates to encourage reunion attendance. (The Office of Alumni Relations will contact you with more information.)

Please make changes as needed to your email address below. Complete and return this form by July 18, 2011.

Updated email address: __________________________________

What are you looking forward to most during Fall Homecoming and Reunion Weekend?
______________________________________________________________________
Accommodations

Room blocks have been reserved for Fall Homecoming and Reunion Weekend at several area hotels. A list of hotels is available on the “Lodging” page of the weekend’s website at www.radford.edu/alumni. Most room blocks will expire in September 2011.

FAQs:

When will I hear more about Fall Homecoming and Reunion Weekend?

• You will receive monthly email communication keeping you informed about the planning of your reunion. You can also check www.radford.edu/alumni often for updates. Please make sure we have your current email address by filling out, detaching and returning the reply card on this mailer.

How can I register for Fall Homecoming and Reunion Weekend?

• You can register for the weekend in July 2011 by mail, phone or online.

When should I arrive?

• Fall Homecoming and Reunion Weekend is a two day event, Friday through Saturday. You can arrive Thursday evening to enjoy all the weekend festivities or arrive anytime on Friday and Saturday for specific events of interest.

How much will the weekend cost?

• A variety of packages at different price options will be offered. Pricing will be included in the official registration brochure and online in July 2011.

Who else will be there?

• Classes celebrating their 5th through 55th reunions will be present. Some activities will be special to reunion classes, while other events will be open for all to enjoy. To see who from your class is planning to attend, visit www.radford.edu/alumni in July 2011.

What is my reunion class challenge?

• Your reunion year is a time to celebrate your memories of Radford University. From freshman year to today, Radford has had an important impact on your life. By giving back to your alma mater, you will ensure that Radford University will continue to provide this same experience to students for generations to come. Each gift, regardless of size, is greatly needed and appreciated. Plus, the class with the highest rate of giving will be invited to a private reception with President Penelope W. Kyle as a thank you for your support!

For a detailed schedule and list of events, visit www.radford.edu/alumni.